JUNE 30 PLANS REVIEWED BY FIRE COMPANY

Gettysburg firemen met Wednesday evening at the Recreation Park for the last time before their annual battle anniversary celebration and went over plans for the annual memorial service Sunday, June 30, and for the carnival week that follows.

Firemen heard Battle Anniversary Committee Chairman Raymond Menges review events planned by the firemen for June 30.

That afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the firemen will rededicate the 72nd Pennsylvania monument at the Bloody Angle. A wreath will be placed and there will be band music and an address by Atty. Eugene R. Hartman.

START WORK MONDAY

At 7:30 o'clock that evening the annual memorial service will be held on the Gettysburg High School athletic field with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as the speaker. In case of inclement weather, the program will be held in the high school auditorium.

Menges asked firemen to report at the Rec park beginning next Monday to begin preparations for the carnival which will be held there July 1 to 6. Chairman Menges complimented the members of the company on a "job well done" in their annual solicitation of funds in the community.

Charles James Stonesifer was elected as a new member of the company.

CHANGE BYLAWS

Chief Hartman announced a training school for truck drivers is underway. An equipment committee report showed a dozen new hats, coats and boots received. The audited report on the ambulance board account was received.

Firemen passed on second reading three changes in the constitution and bylaws. One change will have new officers begin their duties the first of each January and another will give a life membership to each fireman with 25 consecutive years of service in the company. The third change makes the equipment foreman responsible for the maintenance of all equipment.

A military leave was granted to Daryl Mummert who is serving a four-year enlistment in the U.S. Navy. David Baker was placed on the retired list. Francis A. Smith and John A. Codori were named to represent the company at the state firemen's convention in October.

PRESENTS DIPLOMAS

Chief Hartman presented certificates to these members of the local company who recently completed a training school conducted by the state Department of Public Instruction with Fred Orndorff of the York Fire Department as the instructor. Orndorff also spoke briefly.

INTEGRATION IS DEBATED BY ALC DELEGATES

The 550 delegates to the third annual convention of the Eastern District of The American Lutheran Church faced an "explosive" subject Wednesday on the church's stand on integration.

At the business session Tuesday evening a resolution was presented from the floor of the convention which would have directed the district president, Dr. Gordon S. Huffman, to withhold approval of a pastoral call issued by any congregation which refuses to serve its community because of color, class or culture. This same resolution would have directed the district president to withhold authorization of the installation of any pastor who might accept a call to any such congregation.

After debate on the highly controversial issue, the matter was referred back to the resolutions committee for further study. The resolution presented by this committee and adopted Wednesday by the convention delegates states: "That the Eastern District of The American Lutheran Church expresses its sincere regret that any congregation of the Eastern District of The ALC, whether by formal action, silence, or any means, would reject the teachings of the word of God and evidence disloyalty to the church of Christ through willful exercise of discriminatory practices in regard to color, class or culture within its membership and that should a congregation practice the proclamation of the gospel of our Lord with limitation to nationality or race and not admit to membership in the congregation Lutheran who may wish to transfer into the congregation or not admit people to membership classes who may wish to be instructed, the district president shall report this

Surgeons Report Lung Transplant

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Transplantation of a healthy lung to a 58-year-old man has been disclosed by surgeons of the University Medical Center here.

The hospital team said the transplant was made Tuesday and the patient was reported doing well after the three-hour operation.

Surgeons said they replaced a cancerous lung with a healthy lung from an unrelated donor.

Hospital spokesmen said it is too early to know what degree the means being used to suppress the immune response—the body's defense against foreign "invaders"—will prevent rejection of the transplanted lung.

The transplant was tried, surgeons said, after detailed studies in more than 500 experimental animals over a 7-year period.

FIRES, FIGHT BREAK OUT IN CAMBRIDGE

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—Fires flared in three buildings and a brief fight broke out Wednesday night—the third consecutive night of integration demonstrations in this small Tidewater community.

State police said at least two of the fires had been set deliberately. They broke out shortly after a Negro rally at a church.

In one incident, police said, a burning oil pot was thrown from a car through a window of a grocery in the Negro section of town. The fire was put out before it caused major damage.

Only minutes before, a fire destroyed a shed behind the home of Mrs. Helen Waters, the only Negro member of the Dorchester County School Board. She voted with the majority Monday in turning down an appeal for stepped-up school integration.

A flaming kerosene-soaked mop was shoved through the window of a bakery in the white section of town but only minor damage was reported.

Mrs. Waters said she received an anonymous telephone threat Tuesday night that: "You and Mr. Cornish will be next." Charles Cornish is the only Negro member of the Cambridge City Council.

Mrs. Waters said a brick was thrown through her window after the telephone call.

Several white bystanders attacked two white integrationist demonstrators Wednesday night as they marched with some 120 Negroes. City police quickly broke up the fight.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Events proved what President Kennedy acknowledged in his talk to the nation: that words are only a small part of the solution to the racial struggle.

Within 24 hours after he appealed for the support of all citizens in trying to end discrimination against Negroes, this happened:

A Negro leader was shot dead in Mississippi, three white men were wounded and two Negroes stoned in street fighting in Maryland, and Southern Democrats in Congress announced defiance to Kennedy's civil rights proposals.

Violence erupted. Last September violence came even faster when Kennedy asked nation-wide for peace in race relations.

That time, in the very midst of his request that James H. Meredith, a Negro, be quietly enrolled in the University of Mississippi, there was rioting on the campus against U.S. marshals and two men were killed.

The lesson seems plain from the events after Kennedy's two appeals to reason:

The search for equal rights for Negroes, even though they're entitled to them under the Constitution, will be long and probably bloody unless some great racial disaster, like a huge riot, shocks the nation into truly united action.

If that happens it will be a tragic commentary on America's inability to find through reason the long-delayed solution.

KENNEDY PLEA

Kennedy made it clear in his address to the nation Tuesday night that he talked of the "domestic crisis" in the nation now and about the threat of violence and the threat to lives.

Negroes, afraid for almost 100 years to act on their own in protest in the white-dominated world of the South, have discovered that when they act together, and in masses, they must be listened to.

What may come out of this new and sudden realization of strength is unpredictable. For when they see one of their nonviolent leaders murdered, as in Mississippi, the other nonviolent leaders may be hurried aside for more direct action.

BACKWARD SENATORS

Yet, the Southern Democratic senators in Congress sound now as if this were back in the days of the 1940s when Negroes were still unsure and unorganized and offered no danger to the Southern whites determined to keep segregation.

Wednesday, before Kennedy even sent his new civil rights proposals to Congress, 18 Southern senators met and then their leader, Richard B. Russell of Georgia, had some words to say.

He pledged a powerful Southern Democratic fight—meaning, of course, a filibuster—against Kennedy's civil rights proposals although the administration apparently hasn't finished drawing them up.

Kennedy, through his whole administration up to now, has tried to keep the Southern Democrats pacified. If they didn't get mad at him, they could be helpful on

MOVE TO FREE JAILED MAN

Attorney Edwin F. Nikirk, Frederick, Wednesday filed a motion in Frederick Circuit Court to strike out proceedings already completed against a 27-year-old Pennsylvania man charged with raping an Emmitsburg girl early last month.

He says in the motion that the defendant, Donald L. Speelman, was not represented by counsel when he was taken before a trial magistrate, who ordered him held for the grand jury.

Later, the motion says, Speelman signed a petition prepared by the state's attorney to waive his right to grand jury action and requested an immediate trial.

Nikirk said recent decisions of the Supreme Court indicate defendants charged with serious crimes must be represented by counsel throughout all the court proceedings.

If the motion is granted, Speelman will be granted another preliminary hearing.

He is currently being held in the Frederick County Jail under $10,000 bond.

A codefendant in the case, Clarence W. Stouter, a 27-year-old shoe factory worker from Orrtanna, is also being held under $10,000 bond. Only Speelman is mentioned in the motion.

MR. CELEBRITY HAS REGISTRY OF TOP SOCIETY

NEW YORK (AP)—The affair might have been ordinary, even dull, if it had not been for the celebrities there.

But as it was, the reporters happily gathered up the newsy name for their columns, and everybody else ogled and made mental notes of what to tell friends when they got home.

The event was labeled a brilliant success and definitely the smart thing to do.

Yet, nine chances out of 10, those clever and glamorous people might not have turned up if it had not been for Earl Blackwell.

During the past 25 years Blackwell, also known as Mr. Celebrity, has made a career and a fortune out of seeing to it that his famous friends are at the right places at the right times.

Along with providing renown personalities by the train, plane or shipload, Blackwell's Celebrity service also keeps track of their worldly whereabouts through offices in Hollywood, London and New York.

OLD, NEW NAMES

His New York office is a part of his home, a fantastic city penthouse with a 27-foot tree and a ballroom. A part of it is set aside for work on an eight-inch thick biographical Celebrity Register, which he coauthors with his society specialist friend, Cleveland Amory.

Names fade out of the news, out of minds and out of the 100,000 person card file system, and new personalities loom spectacularly into prominence there.

"Celebrities spawn others," explains the affable man with a corner on the market. "You take the Kennedys. There are at least 125 new celebrities since they moved into the White House."

To keep ahead of the game Blackwell prognosticates the winners while they are still struggling for recognition. Now and then he helps fate and his score along by making sure the right people get to know each other.

NEW FRIENDSHIPS

Atlanta-born, 47-year-old Blackwell still has not lost the southern softness in his speech in the 26 years he has been away from home. He was a mere lad of four when he began his worship of movie stars, clipping their pictures and pasting them into scrapbooks. As soon as he finished college (Oglethorpe in Atlanta) he headed for Hollywood.

Blackwell was there only a year, going to dramatic school and producing a play which folded after two weeks, before moving to New York. However, during that short time, he brown-eyed ash blonde resistible. It reminds her of her mother's kitchen. She describes the cake with such love and affection that would-be dieters might skip the chapter.

"Once in a while I do have a treat, maybe 400 calories of chocolate cake. I just say 'Einmal ist keinmal,' (once doesn't count). But I don't let it happen again for a long time," she says.

"When my sister suggested the title, I said 'oh, no.' I thought I would keep people guessing a little longer. But then I changed my mind about it. After all, many big stars have begun to admit their age, and it doesn't seem to make any difference to their fans," she explains.

HAS BECOME REALISTIC She has become realistic about weight, and isn't striving to be a size 8. At one point her physician advised her to gain three pounds because "when a woman gets past her 54th birthday a weight loss is likely to show in the face and neck," he told her. He pegged Hildegard for 136, and that's where she stays. "A too-thin neck and drawn-looking face suggest age," he pointed out.

Exercise is a very important part of her keep-fit program, she says. Those she does faithfully include these:

1. Waist and hips: Stand as straight and tall as possible. With hands on your hips, pivot to the left, to the right. About 12 times.

2. Midsection: Keep feet apart, knees straight, touch left foot with your right hand, right foot with left hand. About 12 times.

3. Arms and shoulders: Stand erect. Swing arms in large circles, larger the better. Make 12 circles, left and right.

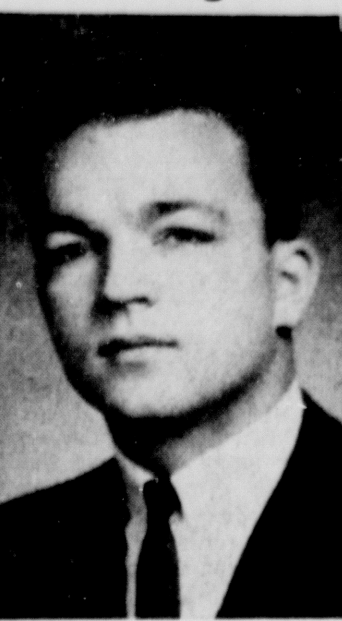

She believes "the younger we look, the younger we feel," so it isn't enough to admit our age — we've got to look as young as we can.

CAN'T SKIP ANYTHING

"You can't avoid any phase of a good beauty program as you grow older. The advantages far outweigh the moments of pleasure in food gorging," she advises.

It was especially difficult for her to diet. She came from a German home, she points out, and was used to stick-to-the-ribs food. She liked hashed brown potatoes, cold beer, thick slices of garlic bread. The sight of anyone eating chocolate cake is ir-

SIDNEY G. WEIKERT

Sidney G. Weikert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Weikert, R. 4, was graduated Sunday from Muhlenberg College, Allentown, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology.

He was a member of the student government for four years, president of his class for three years and served as vice president of the student government in his senior year. He served as sports director of WMUH, the campus radio station, and was president of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. He was chairman of the Freshman orientation program and played varsity soccer for three years being named to the second team of the All Middle Atlantic Conference selections in his senior year.

In September he will enter the administrative trainee program of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States.

Those attending his graduation from Gettysburg were Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Weikert and sons, Harold and Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Weikert and son, Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Weikert and Miss Nancy Wolff to whom his engagement was recently announced.

with a smattering of freckles on his nose ingratiated himself to a number of stars he had adulated from afar for so long.

By chance a producer called him in New York to ask if he might possibly know where Robert Montgomery was. Blackwell knew all right. He knew where a lot of other famous friends were too. The idea of celebrity service was born.

THEY TRUST HIM

At first the movie studios couldn't see it. Why should stars hungry for privacy reveal their secret phone numbers to Blackwell? His big hurdle was convincing them was not to be a keyhole for gossip columnists.

"They've learned they can trust me," he says of his well known friends. "I've proved that I don't exploit them, I only bring people together who need each other."

Recently Blackwell has been packing the women into lecture halls to hear his comments about "Celebrities On and Off the Pedestal." After his speech the ladies always crowd around him to ask confidentially, what is Elizabeth Taylor, or Elsa Maxwell, or Sue Lyons really like?

If they are expecting gossip, they are disappointed. Mr. Celeb-

WHEAT GERM ADDS FLAVOR

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor

Although we are aware that wheat germ is a rich source of protein and chock full of B vitamins and minerals — and even the idea of all those nutrients is like a quick dose of energy — still the reason we have wheat germ around in our kitchen is because we like it.

And we commend it to you. Use it in the following recipe for a quick bread. See if you don't agree with us that it makes a worthwhile contribution to flavor and texture.

We sliced half this loaf as soon as it came from the oven so it could be enjoyed fragrant and warm. The rest of the loaf was cooled, wrapped tightly and refrigerated. Such cold storage helps to keep baking powder breads from drying and makes them easy to slice. We like this loaf, after overnight storage, toasted and slathered with butter.

RAISIN NUT WHEAT LOAF

2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup sugar
1 cup wheat germ
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup chopped walnuts or pecans
2 eggs
1 cup milk
1/2 cup butter or margarine (melted)

Onto a piece of waxed paper, sift together the flour, baking powder, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and sugar; stir in the wheat germ, raisins and nuts. In a medium mixing bowl, beat eggs slightly; add milk and beat to combine; add the melted butter and the flour mixture; stir until dry ingredients are moistened. Turn into a greased loaf pan (9 by 5 by 3 inches). Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — about 55 minutes. Loosen loaf from sides of pan; turn out on wire rack; turn right side up. Cool. Store in tightly covered container. Loaf may be sliced shortly after baking, but for thin slices, leave overnight.

A Bonneville firemen's team defeated the National Guard in a donkey baseball game at Bonneville Wednesday evening by a score of 4 to 3.

NEW YORK (AP) — Phonograph record companies are cutting down on investment in Broadway productions.

Last season, the total backing by disk manufacturers totaled over $2 million. This season the gross amounted to $446,000. Biggest investment was $200,000 in "Nowhere to Go But Up," which was a quick flop. Smaller amounts were put into "Hot Spot," "Sophie," "La Belle" and "The Beast in Me."

Leaves For West To Meet Husband, U.S. Sub Officer: Mrs. Murray B. Frazee Jr., East Broadway, leaves by plane Wednesday afternoon for San Francisco where she expects to meet her husband, Lieutenant Murray B. Frazee, who has been on submarine service in the Pacific for more than a year.

Mrs. Frazee does not know whether her husband is at San Francisco now or not although she received a telegram from him today requesting that she go to San Francisco.

Lieutenant Frazee is a graduate of Gettysburg high school, attended Gettysburg college two years and graduated from the U.S. Naval academy.

Lt. L. T. Willet Dies; Former Store Manager: First Lieutenant Lloyd T. Willet, 43, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Willet, West Middle street died at 2 a.m. Thursday following a major operation at a Denver, Colorado, hospital. He had been stationed at Berkeley Field, Denver, since Christmas.

No details of the death were immediately available here. His wife is enroute here from Denver to complete arrangements for the funeral.

Lt. Willet was manager of the G. C. Murphy company store here until he received his commission in the Army. He was assistant head of the post exchange at the Denver field.

Lt. Willet spent most of his life as an employee of McCrory's or Murphy stores. He attended Lebanon high school and later, when his family moved to Hanover, he was employed at a factory in Hanover.

He then became an employee of the McCrory store and continued with that firm for ten years. He was employed by the Murphy company for 15 years and was manager of a store at State College before coming here.

War Closed 150 Stores In Year In This County: The war was declared responsible — either by inducing owners or by owners going into defense industries — for the closing of more than 150 business establishments in Adams county during the last year.

Many of the establishments were closed through patriotism, with owners enlisting in the armed forces or feeling they would do more good for their country by going into defense plants, it was stated today following a recapitulation of the 1943 mercantile appraiser's lists completed by Oscar C. Rice, the state appraiser for Adams county.

There are 152 fewer retail establishments in the county this year than last, according to Rice's compilation. There were 889 retail establishments last year while the figure has dropped to 737 this year. Wholesalers remained the same, 62 for both years. Restaurants and eating places dropped by 20, from 104 last year to 84 for this year, and entertainment and amusements licenses dropped from 62 to 39.

Miss Mumper Resigns Post: Miss Anna E. Mumper, supervisor of art in the Gettysburg public schools for the last 12 years, has submitted her resignation to the Gettysburg school board, it was disclosed today by L. C. Keefe, superintendent of schools.

Miss Mumper said she has enrolled in the Philadelphia School of Occupational Therapy and will begin an 18-month training period there on July 5. At the conclusion of that preparatory work she expects to work in hospitals aiding with the rehabilitation of convalescents through the use of handicraft, wood working, painting and other crafts.

The local school board expects to act formally on Miss Mumper's resignation at their June meeting next Tuesday.

SILENCE

There is more truth than poetry in the phrase that "silence is golden." There is another saying that if you can't speak well of a person you should not speak of him at all. Both sayings apparently trite — but what a world of superb meaning and philosophy to each!

There is nothing dignified or intelligent about a bitter argument, yet how many of us forget this and utter words that we would gladly forget. But words sink into the cells of the brain and remain — sometimes forever.

It takes courage and self-control to remain silent in the face of abuse and misrepresentation. But it always pays.

We never know what is in the mind of the silent man, and it is well not to arouse anger in such a one. Most of our sorrows and much of the abuse, unjustly hurled at us can be borne in silence. Nothing is lost through silence, unless, of course, you have something helpful to say, or to reveal to the world.

One of the curses of our modern civilization is that there is too much noise to it. Below the windows of most city skyscrapers there is a bedlam of noise going on — horns blowing constantly — a continual city hum. Some day there will be a law against useless noises. A traffic jam occurs and a string of horns begin to blow! For no reason in the world except that a string of drivers lack common sense. Horns can't break up a traffic jam!

The best medicine in the world is a journey into the country where there is quiet, where nothing but the mild and glorious notes of nature soothe the ears of the impatient and tired. The fisherman understands this procedure.

There is also nothing more restful than an ocean voyage. The calm sea is medicine par excellence. The roll of the waves upon the clean sand is like the lullaby which closes the eyes of the tired child.

There is music, poetry and unwritten beauty in all silence.

Just Folks

GRACE
Let me not count my years in gold
Or place or pomp or power attained,
Rather I'd have my story told
In lasting friendships I have gained.Some richer gift from life I'd take
A neighbor's love, or gratitude
Out of the years God grants,
I'd made
Something beyond the hunt for food.I would live well, and yet I pray
When comes the end, it be not said
That I had made of every day
Merely a brutish search for bread.Within what must be my career
I hope the other men may find
More than a sordid struggle here,
To beauty and to service blind.To play the friend, to plant a rose,
To rise above the commonplace
And leave some memory here which shows
That I had touched my life with grace.

Frank E. Basehoar, high school principal, reported on activities held at the school during the month of May. Graduation exercises were held on June 3; all teachers reported for the purpose of completing records on June 4 and students returned for report cards on June 7.

There was an over-all promotion of 93 per cent throughout the Rolling Acres Elementary School, according to the report of John H. Riley, elementary principal. The percentage of promotion per grade was as follows: Grade One, 83 per cent; Grade Two, 95 per cent; Grade Three, 93 per cent; Grade Four, 99 per cent; Grade Five, 96 per cent, and Grade Six, 99 per cent.

Metropolitan achievement tests were administered to all students of the elementary school, by teachers, several weeks ago. The results showed that 89 per cent of the students during the year made at least a year's growth in achievement. Special education classes, elementary and secondary, accompanied by their teachers, Mrs. Gertrude Renner and Miss Beverly Ritter, spent May 24 at Hershey. Transportation was by school bus. On June 3, Mrs. Ruth Kump, substitute teacher of joint schools, showed slides to the students and teachers of the Maple Avenue building of her recent trip to the Western States, Mexico and Hawaii.

The projected enrollment at Rolling Acres and Maple Avenue for the 1963-64 term is as follows: Grade One, 160; Grade Two, 122; Grade Three, 106; Grade Four, 114; Grade Five, 101; Grade Six, 119, a total of 722.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The first-place Springfield Giants, who have had their troubles with the weather all week, may run into some more tonight when they face the Charleston Indians, who have moved like a hurricane from fourth place two weeks ago to only a game behind.

The two teams meet at Springfield in the twin bill opener of a six game series. The Giants have been idle since Sunday while the Indians whipped Binghamton five straight to move into contention.

Charleston Manager Johnny Lipon plans to start either Pete Olsen (4-2) or Tommy John (4-1). Giant Manager Buddy Kerr hasn't said who he'll tap from his potent pitching staff.

HURLS 1-HITTER

Charleston's fifth straight off Binghamton came Wednesday night as the Indians downed the Trips 5-1 behind the one-hit pitching of Bob Miller (4-4). John O'Donoghue (5-5) took the loss.

In the only other game, Elmira capitalized on four Reading errors to whip the Red Sox 8-5 in the final game of a six-game series in which each team took three.

Springfield and York weren't scheduled last night, the first time they haven't been rained out this week.

Eighteen Dixie senators—all of them Democrats except Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex.—canvassed the situation at a closed meeting Wednesday in the wake of President Kennedy's appeal to the nation on civil rights Tuesday night.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., the leader of the group, told newsmen afterward that they are

SPLIT GIVES YANKEES LEAD

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

CHICAGO (AP)—Once a Yankee, always Yankee—as far as the Chicago White Sox were concerned today.

Bob Turley, once a 21-game winner for the Yankees, hurled a one-hitter at Comiskey Park Wednesday night to tumble the White Sox from first place in a twin bill split with the Los Angeles Angels.

Turley's masterpiece—he had a budding no-hitter spoiled by Pete Ward's clean single to center in the sixth inning—came in a 5-0 Los Angeles nightcap triumph after Johnny Buzhardt's three-hitter gave the Sox a 3-1 opening victory.

The split, coupled with New York's 3-2 10-inning decisions over Baltimore, nudged the Yankees one percentage point ahead of the White Sox, .577 to .576.

Turley, signed by the Angels this spring after he was conditionally purchased from the Yankees in October, achieved his 100th victory of his major league career with the one-hitter.

His only previous triumph this season against five defeats was a three-hit, 2-0 shutout of Minnesota on May 7.

Turley recalled this was "my third or fourth one-hitter."

Ward belted a "good, low slider" for the only Sox hit Wednesday night. Turley said, adding: "He didn't meet the ball clean, or it would have been lofted higher and been caught."

BOB TURLEY HURLS 1-HIT SHUTOUT 5-0

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
Los Angeles' Bob Turley gave his former club, the New York Yankees, a boost into the American League's top spot Wednesday night with a one-hit 5-0 victory over the White Sox.

That gave the Angels a split of a two-night doubleheader—Chicago's John Buzhardt hurled a three-hit 3-1 first game triumph—and dropped the White Sox .001 points behind New York. The Yankees reached the top rung with a 3-2, 10-inning triumph over sagging Baltimore.

Meanwhile, Cleveland's Indians rolled to their sixth consecutive victory with a costly 12-6 triumph over Detroit in which they lost outstanding rookie outfielder Vic Davilillo for at least four weeks with a broken right forearm.

SENATORS BOW

In other games, Boston used the home run punch to down Washington 5-3 and Kansas City and Minnesota played rchocet in splitting a doubleheader. The A's pounded 17 hits for a 12-4 victory, then the Twins lashed 13 for an 8-1 triumph.

Turley posted the 100th victory of his 12-year major league career. He struck out seven and walked four in bringing his record to 2-5. Leon Wagner helped him by going 4-for-4, including his 15th home run.

Buzhardt, 7-2, fell behind 1-0 in the second inning of the opener but went on to retire the Angels in order until the eighth. By then the White Sox had pulled ahead.

MUFFS GROUNDER

The Yankees tied it in the eighth on Tom Tresh's double and Joe Pepitone's single, then won in the 10th when Brooks Robinson opened the door by mugging Bobby Richardson's grounder. Richardson moved around to score the clincher on a sacrifice, a walk and Roger Maris' single. It was the Orioles' fifth straight loss and their 11th in 13 games.

Davilillo was hit by a Hank Aguirre pitch in the first inning and was replaced by Jerry Kindall, who started the Indians' winning three-run rally in the seventh inning with a double. A walk, two passed balls and singles by Joe Adcock and Willie Kirkland tied the rest of the damage. The Tigers had built an early lead on homers by Al Kaline, Jake Wood and Dick McAuliffe. The Red Sox scored all their runs on a three-run homer by Ed Bressoud, and solo shots by Carl Yastrzemski and Dick Stuart while Billy Monbouquette, 8-4, scattered eight Senators' hits. Jim King homered for Washington.

Guatemala, the northernmost of Central American republics, is about the size of Tennessee.

Arizona Wallops Missouri's Stroud

OMAHA (AP)—Arizona's Wildcats climbed all over Missouri's heralded Jack Stroud Wednesday night, rocking him for two homers and a 6-4 victory in the college world series.

The NCAA's double-elimination event enters its fourth round tonight with unbeaten Arizona playing Texas after Missouri faces Southern California. Texas, Missouri and Southern California are 2-1 in the series.

The Longhorns outed Penn State 6-4 in 10 innings Wednesday after blowing a 4-0 lead with two out in the ninth. Five straight walks in the 10th produced two runs for victorious Texas.

Southern California eliminated Florida State 4-3 gunning three Seminole runners down at the plate.

PHILS TIE BUCS FOR 6TH PLACE

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Take a look at the National League standings, run your finger down the column. Oops, what's this? The Philadelphia Phillies are in sixth place.

The Phils did it Wednesday night, whipping the St. Louis Cardinals 6-2 to tie for sixth with Pittsburgh, the highest they've been in five years in this stage of the season.

Tony Gonzalez had three hits and he and Clay Dalrymple each drove in two runs as Art Mahafey got his third win against eight losses. Mahafey needed help from John Boomer in the seventh, however, after walking three.

The Cards scored on Stan Musial's single in the first and on a single by Bobby Shantz in the fourth.

It was the 12th time in their last 16 meetings that the Phils beat the Cards.

Dugout Chatter Turns To All-Stars

NEW YORK (AP)—In small circles around major league baseball dugouts, players, coaches and managers were discussing today how to single out the top players for starting berths in the 1963 All-Star baseball game at Cleveland, July 9.

The little knots began to form with notification Wednesday from the office of Commissioner Ford Frick that polling of the clubs for the week of June 21-27. Only one All-Star game will be played this year. For the past four years, two have been played.

The voting will determine the starting teams, with the exceptions of pitchers. The hurlers and the remainder of the 25-man squads will be picked by the managers, Al Dark of the National League and Ralph Houk of the American.

BUCS BLANKED BY O'TOOLE ON THREE-HITTER

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
Jim O'Toole, Cincinnati's prize southpaw, fired a three-hit 3-0 win over Pittsburgh Wednesday night for his 11th triumph.

It was the 26-year-old left-hander's second shutout in a row and fifth of the season—and it gave Cincinnati a vital boost in the National League race. The Reds are in fifth place, but only 2½ games off the pace.

The Los Angeles Dodgers regained a slender lead with a 9-1 rout of Houston that put them .002 points ahead of San Francisco and St. Louis. The Giants beat fourth-place Chicago 3-1 on Willie McCovey's two homers and Bob Bolin's strong pitching, while Philadelphia knocked the Cardinals out of first, 6-2.

Lew Burdette, Milwaukee's expendable right-hander, threw a three-hitter and Hank Aaron slugged in five runs in the Braves' 9-0 romp against the New York Mets.

O'Toole, showing a current record of 11-3 and an earned run average of 2.07 did not allow a walk. Frank Robinson keyed the Reds' decisive two-run fourth inning by doubling in Vada Pinson, stealing third and scoring on a force play.

Maury Wills continued his spectacular batting for the Dodgers, rapping out three singles and a double against the Colts for 16 hits in his last 23 tries. Lefty Johnny Podres was tagged for 10 hits but struck out nine and did not allow a walk.

McCovey whacked his homers off Bob Buhl, with one on in the first inning and none on in the third. Bolin, ace reliever turned starter, limited the Cubs to four hits and struck out 14.

The Phils had three-run innings off Cardinals starter Ron Taylor and veteran reliever Bobby Shantz.

Burdette, 36-year-old Brave right-hander who is on the trading block, gave the pumchless Mets only three singles for his sixth victory. Aaron warmed up with a two-run single in the third inning that opened the scoring, then belted his 18th homer with two aboard in the fourth. Galen Cisco, 3-6, was the loser.

Fairfield Little League

The Cardinals moved into second place in the league standings by turning back the Braves 18-8 Wednesday evening on the Little League diamond.

The Cardinals rolled up nine runs in the third inning on two singles, five walks and a long triple to left field by Walter Shank. Some loose fielding by the Braves also contributed to the Cardinal's cause.

Tim Valentine paced the Braves' attack with a pair of long doubles. Darryl Nagle and Jack Deardorff topped the winners' order with a trio of safeties each. Randy Taylor was the big run producer, crossing the plate four times.

Tonight at 6:15 the Braves and Pirates will tangle in a make-up game.

TRIPLE RACE CARD AT OVAL

The Lincoln Speedway, near Abbotstown, will present another super spectacular racing program this Saturday night. The first event will be at 8:30 p.m.

The United Racing Club, featuring Indianapolis type sprint cars, will join the sportsman-modified stocks, plus the late model division in presenting a triple feature program. In addition, the Baltimore Sky Diving Club, cancelled by low cloud ceilings last week, will present their "free fall" parachute exhibition. The chutists, headed by Jack Black, will fall from 7,500 feet to 1,200 before opening their parachutes. Flares and lights will make their trail, as they attempt to land in the confines of the speedway.

Jim McGuire, Dunnellen, N.J., a two-feature winner for URC, will head a long list of top notch open cockpit racing drivers. Bob by Courtwright and Earl Halaquist, co-champions of the URC club, and each sporting a feature win so far this season, will be attempting to cop the top cash.

Cookies Osterhout, Bill Brown, Lou Johnson, Chuck Lost, Dan Daniels, Tom Price, Ed Gallione, Ronny Rough, Hank Laukitis and Gene Bergin, will all be attempting to gain top honors.

In the stock S-M ranks, feature winners Bobby Hersh, Bobby Abel, Neil Haight, and three-time winner Gene Goodling, will be gunning for the top money. Ralph Smith, another feature winner, will have his new machine primed for the tough competition.

The late model competition will headline Ken Slaybaugh, Ray Wildason, Ike Weaver, Bob Feizer Jr., Eckert Ervin Eckert Sr., and a host of popular late model chuffers.

The sprints will run a 20-lap feature, the S-M will go the 25-lap route, and the late models will vie over the 20-lap main go.

GETTYSBURG LITTLE LEAGUE

Carl Swinn fired a three-hitter as he paced the Moose to a 9-2 win over the Elks Wednesday evening on the Little League field.

Swinn, whose three safeties were scattered, struck out 14 batters and walked seven. The Moose collected 14 hits off Elks' hurler Ted Matland with Wes Ayre and Dave McLaughlin getting three each. Ayre's trio of hits also accounted for four RBI's.

The Elks' two runs came in the top of the second on a two-run homer over the left field fence by Larry Wickerham. The Moose crossed the plate six times in the bottom of the second and added three more scores in the fifth.

The Moose and Rotary will clash this evening in a 6:15 contest.

Cooper's Space Diary Tells Astronaut's Reactions To 22-Orbital Mercury Sky Ride

EDITOR'S NOTE — The Mercury program is dead. Astronaut L. Gordon Cooper Jr. was the last man to fly the pioneer Mercury spacecraft. His 22-orbit record will likely stand for two years as the U.S. space endurance mark. Now the space agency has released the inboard tape recordings of the last Mercury mission. The following story is an abstract of this space diary — Cooper's own words as he saw it and told it while he rode alone in the heavens.

By JOHN BARBOUR

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — As you'd expect of a quiet man thrust suddenly into the focus of the world's eye, Astronaut L. Gordon Cooper Jr. told of his space adventure best to himself and his diary.

That diary — tape recordings he made on his 22 rapid-fire days and nights in space — was released today by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

It is a graphic account of a man alone in his space cabin on what has become the last flight of the pioneer Mercury spacecraft — and probably the last long-term flight of an American for almost two years.

SOME PARTS GARBLED

There is no assurance that the transcript is complete. Parts of the transcription were garbled. Parts may have been deleted for security reasons. And once the troubles that endangered the Cooper flight showed up he apparently gave up his private tape recording.

Conspicuous by its absence is any description of the remarkable details Major Cooper said he saw of a truck, a train and other signs of life in the high Himalayas, including part of Red China. But aside from that, Cooper — in the privacy of his space cabin — seems finally relaxed and alone with the heavens, despite an apparent initial overawareness he was being tape recorded. Let the diary tell it:

REPORTS LISTED

"Well (clears throat) first night side and I have a bright blue band. A thick, diffused band of blue color — the sun is spread out very widely. It's settling now. And there it goes. A very bright blue band all the way around the earth."

With less than an hour in space, Cooper reported to his diary:

"And I have the haze layer that Wally (Schirra, a fellow astronaut) was talking about. I can see the stars down in it. And it is — up and around the earth — to a number of degrees. I can see the stars above it. I can see the stars down in it."

RADIO CONTACTS

Cooper was constantly pulled out of his soliloquy by radio contact from the ground as he came within range of stations under his flight path. But then he returned to his diary:

"Ha-ha. And now at this time I'm observing John's (Glenn's) fireflies. Drifting away from me. I can observe them, appear to be departing from the spacecraft and drifting out to the rear. I then can see some of them a considerable distance to the rear."

The changes on the earth below contrasted sharply with the steady predictable world of space. One minute Cooper was reporting:

AFRICAN VIEW

"Coming in over the coast of Africa. It's very clear here. No clouds. No haze. I'll try and snap (some pictures) of the Atlas Mountains. . . It's very dry, very clear over Africa. We're drifting window down, ideal attitude."

Half an hour later — over the south Indian Ocean — Cooper reported:

"I am now drifting on the night side. I have the moon in sight. I'm upside down. I'm observing lightning flashes from considerable-size thunderstorms that are below me. These create static in the radio every time the lightning flashes down there."

FOOD PROBLEM

He also had troubles: "I'm eating a pot roast of beef. I've had considerable difficulty getting the water in it (dehydrated food in a plastic envelope from this water device on the McDonnell water tank. I spilled water all over my hands, and all over the cockpit here trying to get some in it. I have succeeded in getting about half of it dampened and am proceeding to eat."

"I am washing my face with a damp rag now. Certainly feels good."

"It is rather a strange feeling to be able to place objects out into the — into the cabin and let go of them and they'll stay in relatively their same position. This is worrisome as well as an odd sensation, handy sometime, but ah."

The only close-up description of land in the diary is this one:

"I'm right over Africa. (time passes) I can see roads, and rivers, and some small towns, down here on the ground. Small villages or towns, can almost make out the individual houses."

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

RISING TO THE OCCASION. When a lass fails to rise from her chair at the approach of an adult, her manners are showing.

Girls must stand to be introduced, greet and take leave of their elders, if they wish to be thought mannerly.

Even mature women show a lack of courtesy by not rising on occasion. If mildred could only remember that all our social customs are based on consideration, she would be less likely to create awkward situations for herself. She then would not hesitate to rise upon the entrance, introduction or departure of both men and women whose years or positions command respect.

To exemplify, a woman of 40 years would not think herself past the age for standing to meet a man old enough to be her father. Nor would she remain seated to greet a guest of honor of either sex, regardless of age.

Sometimes the "standing line" may seem to be rather finely drawn. For example, should a woman of 25 rise for a woman of 40? Or a man of 50? Doing so would more likely embarrass than compliment them, unless deference accrues to their position.

Thus tact becomes a factor in the making of the gesture. When it is made, graciousness keys its charm. The action should come from the heart, as well as the feet. It should be gracefully composed, neither a flying leap nor yet a reluctant heave-ho.

State Hospitals Profit From Will

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A Miami Beach resident who died last month left a total of $25,000 to two hospitals and a library in Pennsylvania.

The money was willed by John P. Ehrhart, 75, a retired Pennsylvania painter and varnish manufacturer who died May 19. He had lived on Sunset Island No. 3 in Miami Beach the past several years.

Probate court records show he left $10,000 each to the Greenville Hospital and Meadville City Hospital, and $5,000 to the Ethel B. Ehrhart Library, Jamestown, Pa.

SCRANTON OK'S EARLY PLANS FOR AUTHORITY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton, following a meeting Wednesday with Philadelphia Mayor James H. J. Tate, gave his preliminary okay to the creation of a Southeastern Pennsylvania Transit Authority.

After the meeting with Tate and officials of four other adjoining counties, Scranton said:

"I suggested that they seek the sponsorship of representatives from the counties. I stressed that this was a regional—not a state-wide—problem and that leadership for it should properly come from the Southeast."

GROUP IS PLEASED

Tate, acting as the visitors' spokesman, said the group was pleased with the governor's reception and called the proposed authority "the real answer to our transit problems."

Atty. Gen. Walter Alessandrini, who sat in on the meeting, said the governor placed two conditions on his support of the authority.

"First," said Alessandrini, "the governor said he would like to see some formalized action in favor of the authority by the five counties involved."

REVENUE REPORT

"Second, he has asked for a report on the revenue losses to the state which would result through the formation of the authority."

It is believed bills permitting the creation of an authority will be introduced in the Senate and the House sometime in the near future.

Also attending the meeting were Elkins Wetherill, chairman of the Montgomery County commissioners and chairman-designate of the state Securities Commission; Edward Fromfield, solicitor of Delaware County; Russell Jones of Chester County, and Edward B. Boyer of Bucks County.

The state was represented by the governor; Alessandrini, John Ingram, secretary of administration; Deputy Atty. Gen. Edward Friedman; and William G. Murphy, Scranton's secretary.

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Yemeni President Abdullah Sallal ended a state visit to Syria today and flew to Baghdad for talks with Iraqi leaders on Yemen's admission into the proposed Arab Federation.

QUITO, Ecuador (AP)—Illness will prevent Carlos Maria Cardinal de la Torre from attending the conclave that will elect a new Pope, his doctor said Wednesday night.

The 89-year-old cardinal suffered a stroke last December. Cardinal de la Torre's absence will reduce the conclave to a maximum of 80 cardinals. Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, who is a refugee in the U.S. legation in Budapest, Hungary, is not expected to attend.

LOOTING MOBS ROAM STREETS AS PROTEST

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—Looting mobs roamed Georgetown late Wednesday, and six persons were reported shot as Marxist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan's bodyguards fired into a menacing crowd.

Two other persons were shot during clashes with police in a continuing wave of violence stemming from an eight-week-old strike against a government labor bill. Jagan's foes claim the bill will make him a Castro-type dictator.

The bill would give the government the right to determine which unions employers should recognize.

AIMED AT MEMBER

The 45-year-old prime minister says the strike is intended to topple him from power in this British South American colony divided by perennial strife between East Indians and Negroes.

The East Indians, including Jagan, number slightly less than half the colony's estimated 600,000 population, but more of them are educated and politically conscious than the Negroes. The latter are the dominant element in Georgetown, the capital, however.

Hundreds of persons squatted around the building Wednesday, trapping Jagan and his cabinet inside. Hundreds of others ringed ministerial offices across the street singing "Solidarity Forever" and "We Shall Not Be Moved."

Oilman's Wife Sues For Back Support

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mrs. Miriam H. Pew, estranged wife of millionaire oilman Walter Crocker Pew Jr., has filed suit for $16,214 in back support payments.

In a writ of attachment filed in county court Wednesday, Mrs. Pew tried to tie up the funds held by the Glenmede Trust Co., trustee for Pew.

Mrs. Pew estimates her husband's annual income after taxes at $50,000 and said he was worth about $4 million.

The couple was married Dec. 13, 1953. Mrs. Pew said that in 1961 her husband moved out of their home and has since failed to support her and their daughter, Wendy Lisa, now 5.

As a result, she said, she has been forced to borrow money and to spend $16,214, expenditures she claims are in keeping with his financial circumstances and station in life.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The General State Hospital will open bids July 10 for the remodeling of an old boiler plant building at Nanticoke State General Hospital in Luzerne County. The building is to be used for hospital stores and offices.

GOP CHAIRMAN WOULD LEAVE PHILLY POST

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Wilbur H. Hamilton, reelected Wednesday as chairman of the city's Republican Party, said today he is ready to resign from the post.

Hamilton, GOP chairman here since 1957, sent a letter to the city's other 59 party ward leaders telling them they "should have another chance to think seriously about who shall have the reins of leadership during the forthcoming mayoralty campaign."

Hamilton has been under fire by some Republicans, including the party's candidate for mayor, James T. McDermott, since it was disclosed the chairman's insurance firm received a contract from the Delaware River Port Authority through votes of Pennsylvania Democrats.

MEEHAN INTERPRETATION

Although Hamilton's letter did not actually say he would quit as chairman this was the interpretation given it by William A. Meehan, whose support Wednesday brought Hamilton's re-election by a unanimous vote.

"Wilbur talked to me Wednesday night," Meehan said, "and indicated he had made up his mind to step out."

"He said he did not want to be in a position of costing James T. McDermott, our candidate for Mayor, even one vote in the November election."

McDERMOTT BACKS ACTION

McDermott, 36-year-old attorney has been trying for several weeks to get Hamilton to quit the post of party chairman.

McDermott and some other Republicans have questioned Hamilton's ability to continue as chairman because of the insurance contract.

Meehan says the decision by Hamilton to quit is the chairman's own and was not forced upon him by anyone in Philadelphia or elsewhere.

"Hamilton's re-election Wednesday," Meehan said, "was not based upon any commitment on his part that he would resign."

Hamilton, in discussing his decision with a few political confidants, said he had been placed in "an impossible position by the questions raised by McDermott. He said he would be blamed if McDermott loses "by even 100 votes."

LEGISLATORS FAIL TO SEE EARLY FINISH

HARRISBURG (AP)—The legislative community was far from optimistic today about chances of meeting the July 31 final adjournment target date.

The Senate formally adopted Wednesday a resolution setting noon (EST) on that date for the windup.

House Majority Leader Albert W. Johnson said the House would take up the resolution next Tuesday.

In the opinions of the rank-and-file legislators and veteran observers, however, this may be an optimistic date.

Legislators recalled that in the past, the final adjournment resolution often has been amended, pushing back the date.

RECESS UNTIL MONDAY

Both House and Senate were in recess today until Monday, but the legislative week which ended Wednesday showed a notable quickening of activity as the leaders geared for the rush of activity in what is planned as the final seven weeks.

Liveliest development on the legislative scene Wednesday occurred when the House minority leader attacked Gov. Scranton's method of borrowing for road building as a "costly long-term obligation for Pennsylvania taxpayers."

Minority Leader Anthony J. Petrosky also accused the administration of giving a distorted and grossly unfair picture of the financial condition of the state's highway program.

He made his accusations at a joint House-Senate appropriations hearing on Scranton's proposal to borrow $50 million through the state Highway and Bridge Authority.

Petrosky said the proposal "will require an expected high interest rate of 3.25 per cent which will go on for years." He added:

Macmillan

the rank and file of the party convalesced, created an atmosphere of tension and uncertainty as dynamic as the Suez crisis which toppled Anthony Eden and put Macmillan into power.

RUMORS SPREAD

Rumors had spread that four ministers would quit over the moral aspects of the Profumo case.

One, Sir Keith Joseph, housing minister, disavowed any such intention. Home Secretary Henry Brooke also denied he was leaving the government.

Education Minister Edward Boyle was a question mark.

If all stay in office, Macmillan has gained an important respite in the crisis swirling around the conduct of Profumo, who lied to the House of Commons about his love affair with Miss Christine Keeler. The party girl shared her affections with a Soviet naval attaché.

The Conservatives expect Laborite opposition leader Harold Wilson to spearhead the attack. They said Macmillan would take up the cudgels.

The Cabinet obviously was dealing with the effects of the scandal on the party's election prospects. Illustrating that, the Cabinet called in Lord Poole, the campaign manager, who is not a member of the government.

Macmillan's aides denied any mass revolt was shaping up. They insisted that the prime minister had received general—though not unanimous—support at a cabinet meeting Wednesday which studied his handling of the affair involving former War Minister John Profumo.

Macmillan apparently succeeded in convincing his ministers in the two-hour session that no breach of state security resulted from Profumo's affair with party girl Christine Keeler at the time an assistant Soviet naval attaché also was sharing her bed.

KNEW FUSS IN '61

But Powell was said to have taken the position that enough had been known about Profumo's 1961 affair with Miss Keeler to boot him out of the government long before he confessed lying to the House of Commons to cover his guilt.

One Conservative member of Parliament, Donald Johnson, issued an open call to Macmillan to resign before the government faces debate on the Profumo affair in the House of Commons Monday.

The Conservatives' 100-seat majority in Commons insures that it will survive any motion of censure the Labor party may bring. And Conservatives rebelling against Macmillan's leadership are not likely to vote him out since it would force the party into a national election it almost certainly would lose.

But many Conservatives feel that only a new leader with a fresh, untainted record can improve the party's chances in the general election which must be held by October 1964.

The prime minister also was buffeted by a rising storm of moral indignation from both the pulpit and press.

SENATE COULD SALVAGE BILL FROM DISASTER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's legislative leaders, beaten in the House on economic aid to depressed areas, looked to the Senate today to keep the defeat from turning into disaster.

In one of the worst congressional reverses Kennedy has suffered, his bill to authorize $450 million more in grants and loans to encourage job-making industries in high unemployment areas lost 209 to 204 in the House Wednesday.

Defeat of the bill does not abolish the Area Redevelopment Administration, which administers the program, but Chairman Wrigg Patman, D-Tex., of the House Banking Committee, said it means ARA must immediately stop accepting applications for new loans and grants and that it will run out of funds before long, certainly within a year, unless another bill is passed.

DEAD IN HOUSE

Patman, main sponsor of the legislation, said his bill is dead in the House, but that similar legislation is still alive in the Senate and there is a chance the House might accept some version of a bill the Senate passed.

The authorization bill went down in the House under a hail of criticism, mainly from Republicans who charged the program was badly administered, that too large a share of its resources had been channeled into a few large projects like a recreational area in Oklahoma, and into projects in rural areas of underemployment rather than urban pockets of hard core joblessness.

Wedding

The marriage of Miss Joan Marie Bull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Upton O. Bull, Manchester, Md., to John David Herr Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Herr, Elm Ave., Hanover, was solemnized Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Christ United Church of Christ, Littlestown, by the Rev. G. Howard Koons who performed the double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with white carnations and gladioli, ferns and candelabra. Fred Warner was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of hand-clipped Chantilly lace over nylon net and taffeta. The lace bodice was fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline, trimmed with iridescent sequins and long pointed sleeves of lace. The bouffant skirt of lace and sequins featured an applique panel in the front and a cascaded tiered skirt on the sides and in the back with a chapel train of lace. Her shoulder-length silk illusion veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and sequins. Her jewelry was a strand of pearls a pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and white roses backed with light pink lace.

IN WEDDING PARTY

The matron of honor, Mrs. Patricia Bull, Manchester, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a pale pink dress of sheer chiffon over taffeta, featuring a scoop neckline, puffed sleeves, fitted bodice with criss-cross pleats and a long streamer ribbon belt ending in two flowers. She wore a matching circular hat of standup bows with a nosegay veil and white gloves and shoes. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and blue tinted carnations.

The bride attendant, Miss Janet Byers, Westminster, Md., wore a sky blue dress with matching headpiece and accessories. She carried a colonial bouquet identical to that of the matron of honor.

Wilbur Bechtel, Westminster, served as best man and the ushers were Gerald Yost, Hanover, brother-in-law of the groom; Maurice L. Bull, brother of the bride, and Lawrence Koonitz, Hanover, brother-in-law of the groom.

RECEPTION FOR 200

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social hall for approximately 200 guests. Mrs. Beverly Hahn, Hanover, was in charge of the guest register.

For the wedding trip to an undisclosed destination the bride wore beige with white accessories and a white rosebud corsage. Upon their return they will reside at 186 Stock St., Hanover.

The bride is a graduate of North Carroll High School, Greenmount, and was employed in the office of the Black and Decker Mfg. Co., Hampstead, Md. The groom is a graduate of Littlestown High School and is a member of the Lyric Band Club in Hanover and the Hanover Rod and Kustom Klub. He has completed a four-year tour of duty with the Air Force and is employed by C. A. Hershey, Hanover.

Out-of-town guests were present from Lakehurst, N.J.; Gettysburg, Spring Grove, Hanover, East Berlin, York, Ambridge, Westminster, Mt. Airy, Baltimore and Upperco, Md.

Cab Co., Teamsters Agree On Contract

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Yellow Cab Co. and Teamsters Union Local 156 have agreed on a new contract, which includes a restriction on part-time work.

Charles Fels, secretary-treasurer of the local, said the restriction had been the local's most important demand. The company agreed not to use part-time drivers except on Friday and Saturday and during bad weather or conventions.

He said no part-time driver would be used in any case if average earnings of the full-time men fell below $69 a week.

Present wage scales were not announced.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started on the outward end of the T-shaped dock where there were four storage buildings. It burned a little less than halfway to shore.

The U. S. Army pulled out of Ft. Miles early in the spring and left its facilities in the care of the Army Engineers.

THIRD NEGRO ENROLLS AT ALABAMA U.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — A third Negro enrolls today in the University of Alabama system under protection of state police after Gov. George C. Wallace decided against a second doorway stand for segregation.

Authorities said they expected no trouble at the University Extension Center where the Negro, Dave Mack McGilgath, was to register.

Quiet prevailed at the Tuscaloosa campus Wednesday as two Negroes, Vivian Malone of Xhile and James A. Hood of Gadsden, attended their first classes.

They enrolled Tuesday behind federalized Alabama National Guardsmen after the governor briefly stood off federal officials seeking to get the students registered.

Wallace informed the university president, Dr. Frank A. Rose, by telegram Wednesday night that he would not be present at Huntsville today.

"President Kennedy, with the use of armed federal troops, assumed control of the campus of the University of Alabama, which includes the campus at Huntsville," Wallace wired Rose.

"Due to this illegal and unwarranted military occupation, I will not be present on the Huntsville campus. . . . However, we will continue relentlessly our fight against forced integration of the University of Alabama."

With about 1,200 Alabama guardsmen on duty at Tuscaloosa, the segregationist governor wired Kennedy that state police were being withdrawn.

Peace and order were maintained, Wallace said, by his own men.

NLBR STUDIES SHIP DISPUTE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board is investigating a longshoremen's dispute which has kept a ship from delivering drugs and food to Cuba in the supplies-for-prisoners exchange.

Picketing by both parties in the dispute, the Marine Engineers Benevolent Association (MEBA) and the National Maritime Union, has kept the S.S. Maximus docked and unloaded at Pier 84 South.

M. Kalman Gitomer, lawyer for the ship's New York owner, Cambridge Carriers, Inc., said Wednesday he would continue trying to load the ship until he got formal notice of a cancellation. On Tuesday, the Cuban Refugees Committee of the American Marine Association said that the charter had been canceled and another ship was being sought.

The dispute centers around seven engineering jobs on the Maximus. MEBA claims the jobs should go to its members. They have been held by members of the Brotherhood of Marine Officers, an NLU affiliate, since the ship changed owners.

Soldier Re-enacts Murder Of Woman

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) — State police say a Pleasant Gap soldier accused of murdering a Bellefonte woman re-enacted his crime for them Wednesday.

They also said that a preliminary hearing for Sp-5 Richard Ahearn, 22, is tentatively set for Friday at Rockview Correctional Institution at nearby Bellefonte.

He is accused of killing Mrs. Betty Sharkey, 39, of Bellefonte, R. D., whose nude body was found Sunday in a farm field near State College.

Ahearn was arrested Tuesday. Authorities said he admitted killing the woman with a pen knife early Sunday morning. He was home on a 30-day furlough from Ft. Polk, La., they said.

Judge R. Paul Campbell of Centre County court appointed John R. Miller as counsel for the soldier.

$40,000 FIRE IN DELAWARE

LEWES, Del. (AP) — Damage was estimated today at more than $400,000 as a result of a wind-swept fire at a nearby Ft. Miles dock Wednesday.

G. Edward Wyatt, deputy fire marshal for Sussex County, said he could not pinpoint the cause of the fire, which also destroyed two automobiles parked at the dock.

The fire lasted about 3 1/2 hours. It was brought under control by more than 100 firemen from Lewes and Rehoboth Beach, the U. S. Navy installation at Ft. Miles, the Coast Guard lifeboat station and the pilot boat Philadelphia.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started on the outward end of the T-shaped dock where there were four storage buildings. It burned a little less than halfway to shore.

The U. S. Army pulled out of Ft. Miles early in the spring and left its facilities in the care of the Army Engineers.

POLICE SPREAD HUGE DRAGNET FOR KILLER OF NAACP LEADER

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — As tension mounted in this troubled Southern city, police and federal agents continued a massive search today for the assassin of Negro leader Medgar W. Evers.

"We have some good leads," said Chief of Detectives M.B. Pierce.

Meanwhile, the widow of the slain man — her voice trembling with emotion — called on Negroes to continue their battle against racial discrimination.

Evers was gunned down in his driveway early Wednesday.

There were fears that the ambush slaying would touch off fresh racial strife in this Mississippi capital city of 145,000.

WIRES PRESIDENT

The Rev. A. Charles Jones, dean of Campbell College for Negroes here and one of the leaders in the integration movement, telegraphed President Kennedy that the "tragedy may provoke a violent explosion in this community which will bring additional disgrace and tarnish the American image before the people of the world."

Evers, 37, had been Mississippi field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People for the past nine years.

"MOURNING MARCH"

Thirteen ministers and a church layman who gathered downtown for a "mourning march" Wednesday were arrested by police. They were later released without charge.

Later, 146 other Negroes were jailed when police broke up another attempted demonstration.

Late Wednesday night, a police car was hit by several soft drink bottles as it drove through the campus of Jackson State (Negro) College. Police Capt. Cecil Hathaway said the bottles had apparently been hurled from the top of a five-story men's dormitory.

Aided by the discovery of the murder weapon—a 30.06 Enfield rifle — police pressed their hunt for the ambush slayer.

DEATH NOT IN VAIN

Mrs. Evers told a mourning crowd of 700 Negroes Wednesday she was determined the death of her husband would not be in vain.

Men wept unashamedly. Teenagers bit their lips and stared ahead with unblinking eyes.

"I come here tonight with a broken heart," said the 30-year-old widow, "but I come because I feel it is my duty."

"I come to make a plea. No one knows like I know how my husband gave his life for this cause before he was killed. He lived with it 24 hours a day."

She said he talked of death the day before his assassination "and said if he had to go he would rather it be this way."

NO SONGS, CHEERS

When she finished, the audience silently rose. There were no "freedom songs," no cheers, none of the exuberance that marks other mass integration rallies.

Instead, their voices pealed "My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty."

Funeral arrangements were incomplete for Evers, who left three children—the oldest 10.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., speaking at a New York meeting, called the slaying "an inexpressible tragedy and an unspeakable outrage."

Later, King said he will attend the funeral.

Rewards totaling $24,350 were posted for information leading to the arrest and conviction of Evers' slayer.

Drug Company Is Sued For $25,000

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A New Castle man has filed a $25,000 damage suit against a New York pharmaceutical firm, contending a drug he took to reduce cholesterol produced harmful side effects.

The suit was filed Wednesday in U. S. District Court on behalf of William J. Wingfield, 55. It claims the drug, Mer-29, causes loss of hair, eyebrows, fingernails and toenails and other ill effects.

Richardson-Merrell, Inc., removed the drug from the market last year after damage suits had been filed against the company.

Wingfield said he took the pills daily for nine months in 1961. He charged the firm with negligence in failing to test the drug adequately and label it properly.

SEEK TAXI PERMIT

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Public Utility Commission hearing has been set for June 29 in York on the application of Patrick J. Barrett, of that city, to start furnishing taxicab service in Hanover.

Barrett said a need exists for the service even though Flickinger Taxi and Hanover Cabs, Inc., operate in the area.

The hearing will be in the court house, starting at 10 a.m. (EDT).

Originally coffee was eaten, not drunk. It is believed that Ethiopian tribesmen ate wild coffee berries mixed with fat.

A 50th wedding anniversary reception was held recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffman, R. 1, in the Piney Creek Presbyterian Church social hall, near Harney, Md. A brief program was presented. About 85 guests from York, Washington, Gettysburg, Taneytown and Littlestown attended. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman were married at St. John's parsonage, Littlestown, May 25, 1913, by the late Rev. I. M. Lau.

Fear Severe Reaction In Wake Of Negro's Slaying

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The grim potentialities for the whole nation in the killing of Medgar W. Evers, highly placed Negro leader, are particularly evident in the South today.

Southerners see the danger of strong Negro reaction setting up a strong counterreaction among the white populace and if that happens, as a Southerner put it, "All hell will break loose."

Evers, Mississippi field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was shot in the back shortly after midnight Wednesday. He died 50 minutes later.

In the aftermath of his death, the outlook for the deeply aggravated struggle over civil rights in the United States appears to be taking these forms:

NEGROES CONFER

1. Increased aggressiveness among Negro organizations in the drive for full civil rights.

In numerous major cities, Negro leaders were in meetings. Telephone calls around the nation frequently brought the answer, "He is in conference."

After one such meeting, Arthur L. Johnson, Detroit NAACP official, said: "The result of Evers' death will be intensification of the drive of Negroes to achieve what Medgar wanted."

2. Several Southerners spoke of the possibility of white counter-reaction.

Louis Eckl, editor of the Florence (Ala.) Times, said: "This is the danger: that people will stop thinking and start shooting. Generally speaking when you have a violent thing like this it firms the Negroes up. It is a highly explosive situation and liable to cause them to become more extreme in their actions and thinking, and could lead to disaster."

SEVERE STRAIN

3. Newly established lines of communication between the races in the South are under severe strain today, if not actually broken down.

In many Southern cities, moderates of both races have gradually been restoring communications in an effort to find peaceable solutions to the Negro demands for equality in the schools and in other facilities.

These gains are threatened today.

4. Evers' death appears to be a severe setback for moderates of both races and an encouragement to extremists on both sides.

Both white and Negro observers say they believe the Black Muslims would "make immense capital out of this."

"ESSENCE OF EVIL"

"It's made to order for them," a Negro leader said.

The Muslims are a Negro extremist organization which advocates complete separation of the races. Mohammed Elijah, their leader, told The Associated Press in Phoenix, Ariz., last week that the white man is "the essence of evil."

Another example was a white Birmingham, Ala., businessman. He said he had been prepared to agree to desegregate downtown store facilities.

"But when the Negroes started demonstrating, I said I would be damned if I would give them one inch," he said.

In these respects, Evers' death has dealt a fearful blow to the efforts of members of both races to find an accommodation for the anguished struggle over civil rights.

Guards Recapture Escaped Inmate

WAYMART, Pa. (AP)—Eugene Vernon, 20, of Pittsburgh, was captured by hospital guards Wednesday a few hours after he had escaped from Fairview State Hospital for criminal insane.

Vernon had struck Benjamin Snipas, 47, hospital occupational and recreational therapist, with an angle iron, hospital officials reported.

The patient had been committed to Fairview five years ago after being declared insane prior to a trial on a murder charge.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Among the winning drivers at Liberty Bell Park Wednesday night was a first-time victor.

Dave Wade, 18, Spring City, Pa., drove Jenny Randa to a win in 2 minutes, 53.5 seconds for his first victory. Jenny Randa paid $17.40.

Today In Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP)—Hugh M. Carleton, 40, of Huntingdon Valley, was named Wednesday as director of the Bureau of Standards in the Department of Property and Supplies.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Scranton expects to have his administration take a stand by next week on a bill to increase truck weight limits in Pennsylvania.

A bill to raise the limit from 60,000 pounds to 73,280 for five-axle truck combinations is now before the Senate Highways Committee.

"I frankly would like to look into this once more thoroughly," he said Wednesday. "I am concerned about it from the standpoint of highway safety" and its relative importance to industrial development in the state.

"I'm very likely to take a position before the General Assembly session begins next week," he said.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Public Utility Commission hearing in Sharon on plans for changes in railroad grade crossing protection in that city has been postponed from June 20 to July 8.

The PUC granted the delay Wednesday at the request of railroad counsel.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Henry R. Sklar of Wynote was appointed Wednesday as assistant attorney general for the Public Welfare Department at an annual salary of $7,407.

He was named to replace David B. Fitzgerald of Narberth, who the department said resigned effective June 21 to return to private practice. Fitzgerald was paid $9,454 annually.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Game Commission will hold a public hearing June 22 to help establish seasons and bag limits for 1963-64.

News Briefs

ESCALANTE, Utah (AP)—Marvin E. Porschatis, 29, Salt Lake City, Wednesday night became the 13th victim of a truck crash that killed five other adults and seven Boy Scouts.

Forty-six were on the stake truck Monday afternoon when it rolled backwards down a steep grade, then tipped over into a ravine southeast of here near Hole-in-the-Rock.

Porschatis suffered a skull fracture. He never regained consciousness.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Dolores Hart, who says her decision was not a hasty one, is giving up one of Hollywood's most promising careers to become a Roman Catholic nun.

The blonde actress, a 1948 convert to the Catholic faith, was quoted Wednesday as telling a friend: "I am not leaving anyone or anything behind. I am taking a full and grateful heart with me."

Miss Hart, 24, already has entered an unnamed Connecticut convent, her press representative disclosed.

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—The president-elect of the American Medical Association says there is no question in his mind that cigarette smoking is the greatest producer of preventable disease.

Dr. Edward R. Annis of Miami, Fla., emphasized in an interview with the Evening Bulletin Wednesday that he was speaking as an individual physician in warning against the health dangers of cigarette smoking.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—A New Kensington high school, Westmoreland County, sophomore has been elected president of the Pennsylvania Association of Future Homemakers of America.

Scranton Heads GOP Fund Raisers

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP)—An estimated 1,200 Republicans headed by Gov. Scranton, paid $100 each Wednesday to attend a buffet supper and theater party at Tally Ho Inn and Valley Forge Music Fair.

The money will go to the Republican Finance Committee.

Between acts at the Music Fair, Scranton made a brief address, praising Philip P. Sharples, chairman of the GOP state finance committee, for his efforts in the 1962 campaign.

Other prominent party leaders present included U. S. Sen. Hugh Scott, Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, Sharples, who retires July 1, Frank C. P. McGinn, his successor, Thomas B. McCabe a prominent fund raiser, and other Republican members of the state administration.

HARRISBURG (AP)—LeRoy Gleason of Jersey Shore, an employee with the state Game Commission for 29 years, will retire June 28 as its northcentral field division supervisor, the commission announced Wednesday.

Gleason first joined the commission in 1934 as an assistant game protector in Lycoming County.

LADY LAWYER WORKS TO SAVE WOMAN'S RIGHT

MONTREAL (AP)—In Quebec a married woman may not buy or sell stocks, bonds, shares or property without her husband's authorization.

The same holds if she wishes to set up a business, have an operation or commit her child to a hospital.

"All persons are capable of contracting except those whose incapacity is expressly declared by law . . . minors, interdicted persons, insane or temporarily deranged persons — and married women," says Montreal lawyer Wilhelmina Holmes.

Only three years ago these words were stricken from Article 935 and 936 of the Quebec Civil Code but the principle still exists in other parts of the law.

Until 1932 when a special amendment to the code was passed, a woman was not entitled to keep her own pay check if her husband demanded it.

Mrs. Holmes has devoted most of her career to championing the "incapables"—the married women of Quebec still living under the same civil law used by the first settlers of New France 350 years ago.

The vivacious lawyer was a member of the first all-woman law firm in Quebec and later joined with her daughter, Diane, to form a mother-and-daughter law firm.

"Without having any rights, the wives of Quebec have more protection than wives in Canada," Mrs. Holmes says.

"But today most women are not satisfied with just protection. This doesn't go along with the modern concept of marriage."

Women from other provinces and countries are "befuddled," she says, when they come to Quebec and find themselves having to adhere to an antiquated set of laws.

The energetic, blue-eyed grandmother says that about 60 per cent of her clients have been women and most of her cases deal with separation and divorce. She works closely with marriage counselors in most cases.

"I believe in marriage counselling first before starting any proceedings," she says.

In the past, a number of Quebec women have tried to pressure the government into revising the civil law. "But we haven't yelled loudly enough," says Mrs. Holmes.

However, she is optimistic. Premier Jean Lesage, she says, has already appointed a committee to study the problems and make recommendations.

HAWAII MARKS 150 YEARS OF PINEAPPLES

HONOLULU (AP) — "This day I planted pineapples and an orange tree."

The entry in the diary of a friend of the king of the Sandwich Islands was made Jan. 21, 1813.

It's 150 years since Don Francisco de Paula y Marin, friend and counselor of King Kamehameha I planted his pineapples and his orange tree. The orange never became a commercial success, and growers appear ready to leave its cultivation to California, 2,500 miles away. But the pineapple did.

The Spanish settler is primarily responsible for one of Hawaii's basic "home" industries. Tourism, sugar, pineapple, and military spending are the state's major sources of income.

Ninety years after Don Marin planted the first pine—the fruit is widely called "pine" in the 50th state—the real beginning of the industry began.

James Dole's Hawaiian Pineapple Co., now known as the Dole Corp., exported the first commercial pack of 1,893 cases in 1903.

He produced it in a small cannery at a spot 30 miles from Honolulu called Wahiawa.

Dole, then 24, moved his canning operation nearer to the port of Honolulu and nine years later was processing 1.2 million cases of pineapples—60 per cent of the world's production.

Today neat rows of pineapple plants nestle in the red earth of five of the six major islands in the Hawaiian chain.

Each year, 23,000-year-round and seasonal workers on 10 large plantations and in seven canneries cut, process, can and pack 30 million cases of the sweet, yellow fruit. The export value is estimated at $120 million.

Mrs. Guy Benchoff, Woodstock, Va., was the guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Guild and Brotherhood of Grace United Church of Christ in the parish house. The meeting was in charge of the Christian education committee of which Mrs. Larina Fream and Mrs. Catherine Clingan are cochairmen.

NEW YORK (AP)—Will mediocrity spoil the Mets?

Have New York's baseball darlings—once such hapless, hopeless, lovable losers—improved to the point where they now are merely losers?

Are the Mets becoming a bore? In their maiden season in the National League last year, the Mets set unbelievably high standards for futility. They found new ways to lose. They lost with an inimitable flair. Time and again they staged those incredible, implausible—and almost inevitably useless—rallies.

Nobody took it all very seriously, and it was fun. But this season they've taken the fun out of losing. Through trades and purchases and promotions and demotions the Mets are a better club, mechanically.

"But today most women are not satisfied with just protection. This doesn't go along with the modern concept of marriage."

Where once they threw away games with remarkable inventiveness, they now are losing routinely by being outthit, outpitched and outfielded.

A large number of boosters have been swarming to the Polo Grounds to see the Mets in the flesh. Local pundits have tabbed these fans the "New Breed."

The newest idol of the New Breed is Jim Piersall, the center fielder recently acquired from Washington Piersall is a talented player but is best known as one of baseball's zanier citizens.

However, Piersall's antics are no longer a novelty. His very unpredictability is predictable.

Perhaps that sums up the Mets. They've become predictable. And who needs predictable losers?

POOR HITTING HURTS ORIOLES

NEW YORK (AP) — Manager Billy Hitchcock of the Baltimore Orioles has a ready answer for his team's startling string of setbacks, 11 defeats in the last 13 games and five losses in a row. All this after the Orioles had won nine straight to go into first place.

"Everybody stopped hitting at once," said the pipe-smoking skipper after the Orioles lost to the New York Yankees Wednesday night, 3-2 in 10 innings.

"Our pitching has been good all the way," Hitchcock said. "But we just haven't been able to put the hits together."

Despite the general slump, the Orioles are only 1½ games out of first place. For which Hitchcock is grateful.

"I'm not particularly worried, we've got too many good hitters to continue this way for long," Hitchcock said.

"We're bound to start hitting again soon."

Littletown

STATE JAYCEE OFFICER FROM YORK SPEAKS

Robert Gordon, York, vice president of the Pennsylvania Junior Chamber of Commerce, was present at the semi-monthly meeting of the Littlestown Jaycees held on Tuesday evening in the chapter office at the Community Center. Gordon, who is a native of Littlestown, gave a brief lecture on the orientation and organization of Jaycees nationally, in the state and locally.

Preliminary plans were announced for the annual family picnic to be held on Tuesday, July 23. The place and details will be announced later. Clyde Bucher heads the committee on arrangements.

J. Scott Zanger, community development chairman, reported on the investigation of installing a walk light at the community square. He also reported on the Jaycee project of erecting rest rooms on Memorial Field. Work is progressing on this project and the cement floor will be laid as soon as the weather permits. Otto C. Sells was appointed to serve as chairman of the project with Jaycee Zanger.

PLAN CAR SHOW

The local chapter is cooperating with the Gettysburg and Upper Adams Jaycees in sponsoring the sale of seat belts. The three chapters will have a combined meeting to further plans for this project. Interested persons may contact any Jaycee for the purchase of a seat belt. Otto Sells reported on this project.

The following attended the meeting of Area IV held on Sunday in Harrisburg: President Richard E. Selby, Fred L. Dutterer, James Wolf, Clyde Bucher and Paul F. Boller Jr. Dutterer reported on proceedings at the meeting.

It was decided that as a fund-raising project, the chapter will sponsor a new car show in November. Plans will be advanced and announced later. An invitation was received to attend the Taneytown Junior Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting on Saturday, June 29, when the Maryland Jaycee president will be in attendance; a delegation from the local chapter will attend.

President Selby, who presided, announced that the membership gain for Area IV for the coming year is 50 per cent. Paul Boller, state director, is in charge of preparations for the July state board meeting in Hazleton. The local chapter has submitted a bid to host the regional meeting in early 1964.

The Littlestown Jaycees will hold their next regular meeting on Tuesday, June 25, at 8 p.m.

MAN KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

COLVER, Pa. (AP) — A man was killed Wednesday night in the crash of his light airplane in a field near this Cambria County community.

Police tentatively identified the victim as Dr. Joseph Clancy Jr. of Osceola, Mo. The tentative identification was made from papers found in the crash area.

Residents said the plane flew low over Colver before plunging into a field on the Dock Jones farm about 1½ miles north of Colver. The victim was hurled from the plane.

State police said the crash was probably caused by poor weather conditions. The ceiling was very low and fog and rain restricted visibility.

Dr. Clancy, a student pilot, was believed to have been enroute to his home in Osceola after completing a refresher course at the Harvard University Medical School.

EISENHOWER, GOP LEADERS CONFER TODAY

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower headed a group of distinguished Republicans here today for workshop sessions aimed at extending the political influence of citizens organizations.

Eisenhower had accepted the invitation of the Republican Citizens Committee to journey from his Gettysburg farm, some 50 miles away, to moderate a key panel of the workshop meeting on critical issues.

The morning sessions were to kick off promptly at 9 a.m., EDT. In addition to the group, other sessions were scheduled on supporting party candidates and improvement of citizens organizations in metropolitan areas.

All of the workshop sessions were closed. The sessions will include a report on a poll explaining how voters look at the differences between the two major parties, a study of techniques of clarifying the differences between the parties and a discussion of aids to candidates and problems in urban areas.

The Republican citizens committee is headed by X.X. Wrede Petersmeyer, Bronxville, N.Y. He said the workshop session idea grew out of the citizens groups organized to work for Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

GOLDWATER: Sen Barry Goldwater estimates it's costing $12,000 out of his own pocket to tell the people who write him about it that he's not running for president.

Goldwater, Arizona Republican who is being boomed by some members of his party for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination, estimated in an interview that he will be the cost of hiring three additional secretaries to answer his mail.

Despite evidence of what some other politicians might be inclined to regard as popular demand, Goldwater maintained that he has not changed his stance that he is only running for re-election in Arizona.

SUPPORTS RODGERS

It was as a senator and not a potential 1964 rival that he dropped in on President Kennedy at the White House on Wednesday. He said he urged the President to reappoint Philip R. Rodgers, a Republican, as a member of the National Labor Relations Board.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said Wednesday night in New York that he considers Goldwater the leading contender at present for the nomination next year. But he added it is a "horse race" between Goldwater, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Michigan Gov. George Romney with "none of them a shoo-in; nobody has a majority."

VETERANS: The Senate Finance Committee has voted to re-open National Service Life Insurance for World War II and Korean War veterans who let their policies lapse or did not take any out.

The proposal was sponsored by Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., who

METHODISTS TO ELECT EIGHT TO CONFERENCE

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — The Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Church today starts electing eight delegates to the conference of the church next April in Pittsburgh.

The Pittsburgh session is the church's international quadrennial meeting. Balloting here is expected to take two days.

Other business on tap at the conference's 95th annual session includes reports from its boards and agencies.

The ministerial and lay delegates from the conference's 633 churches Wednesday heard a bishop from Pittsburgh call on the church to improve its performance in three areas.

HEAR BISHOP

Bishop W. Vernon Middleton, in warning Christians in general that they were not meeting their "responsibilities as followers of Christ," said:

"We have lost the knack of touching people for Christ... somehow we have to get back to the understanding that the New Testament is the greatest book ever written and how relevant it is to our problems today."

"There is no substitute for goodness in a man of the cloth. There is no substitute for honesty and integrity in a member of a church."

"The task of the church is to see the power of God in all things and to make him real to men where they live."

PRESENT REPORTS

The delegates also were presented with a statistical report for the past year which showed: 633 churches are in the conference with a membership of 133,633—a net loss of 1,296; 31,746 preparatory members—a gain of 3,184—and 102,288 church school members—a gain of 4,617.

The total value of the churches, parsonage and property is $58,710,885, the delegates were told.

LEW BURDETTE SCOFFS RUMOR OF BIG TRADE

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves are hurting at the gate and they'd like to unload veteran Lew Burdette and his hefty salary. However, the fidgety right-hander is putting the brass in somewhat of a bind.

Burdette laughed at trade talk in a pitcher's best manner Wednesday night as he allowed only three harmless singles in a 9-0 victory over the New York Mets.

"To heck with the trading business," the 36-year-old Burdette said. "I just want to pitch regularly."

RECALL WAIVERS

The Braves asked waivers on Burdette only last month. The waivers were recalled when the St. Louis Cardinals expressed a willingness to accept fifty-five percent of Burdette's $50,000 salary.

Burdette, whose 179 major league victories include six in 11 decisions this year, admitted that he couldn't "help but think a little about all the trade talk."

"You hear rumors every year, but this is the first time I think I've ever been really involved in serious discussion," he said. "I can do only one thing—go out there and do my best. I have a lot of pitching left and I can't let trade rumors rattle me."

Said Milwaukee Manager Bob Uecker: "If he pitches like that, he has to be in the untouchable class."

GARY PLAYER SAYS MONEY IS NOT FACTOR

Associated Press Sports Writer HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Gary Player, one of the top favorites in the $100,000 Thunderbird Classic starting today, says too much importance is put on the dollar mark and not enough on the scorecard in bigtime golf.

"It's getting so players are judged not by how many tournaments they win or how well they play, but how much official money they collect," the articulate little South African said. "It is an unfair and inaccurate gauge."

"The only true gauge of a player's ability is the scoring average. The man who plays consistently the best golf under a variety of conditions on a variety of courses should be ranked No. 1."

PLAYER AND PALMER

Player, one of the game's current Big Three which also includes Arnold Palmer and Jack has guided such a provision through the Senate six times—and seen it killed six times in the House.

ARTS: President Kennedy has established an advisory council on the arts to serve as a sounding board for cultural problems. Names will be announced Sunday.

President Named Telephone Head

POCONO MANOR, Pa. (AP)—C. E. McCormick, president of the General Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, was elected president Wednesday night of the Pennsylvania Independent Telephone Association.

His election came at the organization's 61st annual meeting being held at Pocono Manor. Approximately 530 delegates are attending.

J. Hiram Swope of the Bethel and Mt. Etna Telephone Co., Myerstown, was elected first vice president while S. E. Phillips, Peoples Telephone Co. of Butler was chosen as second vice president.

H. Y. Smith, Columbia Telephone Co., Columbia, was named treasurer.

PAST SEASON IN TELEVISION "UNEXCITING"

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Television's evening programs on the network this past season cost close to $900 million, counting production and time.

Now, at season's end, it is fair to ask what kind of television year it has been. The answer, underscored by the recent Emmy awards: unexciting.

At any rate, television's most memorable moments during the past season, as far as this viewer is concerned, came in the documentary and news areas.

"TUNNEL," BEST

"The Tunnel," which picked up the "program of the year" Emmy, was a thoroughly gripping program, full of real suspense even if we did know at the outset that many people were to escape to freedom in the West through the escape passage dug under the Berlin wall.

But "The Kremlin," broadcast too late to qualify for this season's honors lists, is my candidate for television's finest hour of the year.

The cream of the entertainment shows were ones which, for a second year, took pains with scripts and performances. "The Defenders" had a point to make most weeks and made it in vivid dramatic terms. "The Dick Van Dyke Show" was not only funny, but witty and charming.

DRAMAS DISAPPOINTING

It was a sorry year for original drama. The carefully produced "Hall of Fame" specials lacked zing. With a couple of outstanding exceptions — "The Outpost," an off-beat morality play, and "Big Deal in Laredo," a really amusing comedy — the Sunday night "Show of the Week" dramas were disappointing.

The variety shows had a tendency to look and sound alike, particularly because they all seemed to be using the same list of guest stars. Exceptions were "The Garry Moore Show," usually bright and fresh, and "The Andy Williams Show," handsomely mounted and in excellent taste. The Ed Sullivan Show, dean of the category, showed signs of age — or maybe some of us are getting tired of the format.

Recommended tonight: "McHale's Navy," ABC, 9:30-10 (EDT)—a new adventure of the members of television's kookiest crew.

Nicklaus, tees off in the first round of the Thunderbird tournament over the 6,550-yard, par-70, Westchester Country Club course. He is paired with Palmer.

Nicklaus, the 23-year-old Masters and U.S. Open champion, goes off later with Bob Rosburg and Paul Runyan.

They are the big names in the 138-man field, which includes a trio of red-hot menaces in Julius Boros, winner of the Buick Open last weekend; Tony Lema, who has been dogging the footsteps of the big three, and steady Dow Finsterwald, playing at the peak of his game. Ben Hogan, now 50, is added dressing.

Nicklaus currently is leading the money list with earnings of $57,615, followed by Lema, $49,006, Boros, $43,325, and Player, $39,167.

Betancourt Orders Red Roundup As Bomb Plot Fails In Venezuela

By PAUL FINCH
CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — President Romulo Betancourt ordered the arrest of Venezuela's estimated 400,000 Communists and pro-Castro extremists Wednesday night following his escape from another assassination attempt.

Betancourt said three Communist terrorists plotted to assassinate him Wednesday with a time bomb at the Roman Catholic archbishop's palace in Ciudad Bolivar, a river port 275 miles south-east of Caracas.

The president told a national radio audience that police nabbed two of the terrorists as they entered the palace with three sticks of dynamite and a timing device. The third plotter got away.

ORDERS ROUNDUP

"Society cannot be subject to continued risk to property and life by a group of pyromaniacs and terrorists," Betancourt said in ordering Interior Minister Carlos Andres Perez, to start an immediate, nationwide roundup of members of the already-banned Communist and MIR parties. The MIR, or Movement of the Revolutionary Left, is a pro-Castro revolutionary movement.

The order was the toughest Betancourt has issued against subversives who began moving against him shortly after he took office in 1959. The next election is scheduled for November. The president has banned Communists from the election.

He has survived three previous known plots against his life and two revolts against his government. It is believed there were several other assassination attempts that never were announced.

INDEFINITE DETENTION

Betancourt, noting that the government cannot hold anyone without charges for more than 30 days vowed that every Communist will be jailed again as soon as released. Such 30-day periods of detention could go on indefinitely.

The president, a moderate leftist, said he ordered the arrests because the legislature was taking too much time to enact an anti-terrorist emergency measure he proposed last week. The bill specifies 30-year prison terms for terrorists convicted of burning factories, one of their prime targets in a campaign stepped up since the Cuban crisis last fall.

Communist and MIR members in the Senate and Chamber of Deputies have parliamentary immunity to Betancourt's arrest order.

The president, on a tour of the interior, went on the air from the Orinoco River village of San Felix to disclose the plot against him. He said it was thwarted shortly before he arrived for the dedication of the palace at Ciudad Bolivar.

Chamber Advocates In-training Course

SHARON, Pa. (AP)—The board of directors of the State Chamber of Commerce wants college students to have interim employment and training in all areas of academic and scientific fields.

Donald E. Shepard of Myers-town, chairman of the chamber's Education Committee, said the program would be like one now in operation in engineering.

The board passed the resolution Wednesday at the concluding session of a two-day meeting.

Under the engineering program, students attend college and work in their selected fields for an equal length of time. The routine continues until the students receive their degrees.

Racial Issue At A Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

JACKSON, Miss. — Widow of slain integration leader calls on Negroes to continue their fight against racial discrimination. Police and federal agents push massive search for assassin of Medgar W. Evers and say they have some good leads. Demonstrations broken up Wednesday and 146 Negroes jailed. Some fear fresh racial strife as result of slaying.

CAMBRIDGE, Md. — Third straight night of integration demonstrations sees fires flare in three buildings and a brief fight.

WASHINGTON—About 200 labor leaders to meet with President Kennedy today to discuss civil rights. Former President Eisenhower discussed with Kennedy on Wednesday the administration's forthcoming civil rights message to Congress. Southern senators rallying to fight Kennedy proposals. Close associate of slain Negro leader Evers to tell House Judiciary subcommittee of racial violence in Jackson, Miss.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala.—Third Negro enrolls this afternoon in white University of Alabama system. Gov. George C. Wallace, who failed to prevent two other Negroes from entering main campus at Tuscaloosa on Tuesday, says he will not appear at Huntsville. All quiet at Tuscaloosa as Negro students attend classes.

HONOLULU—Nation's mayors adopt civil rights program outlined by President Kennedy for improving racial harmony. LEXINGTON, N.C. — Murder charge filed against 19-year-old Negro accused of firing shots that killed one white man and wounded another in race riot Thursday night.

NEW YORK — Acting Mayor Paul R. Screvane says city will halt construction on a city hospital project unless AFL-CIO trade unions end immediately any discriminatory practices there.

DANVILLE, Va.—Mayor Julian R. Stinson promises to name three-man committee to negotiate on desegregation demands which touched off more than a week of demonstrations.

SAVANNAH, Ga.—Tense situation developed when Negro policeman arrested white man accused of hitting or pushing Negro demonstrator. Police reinforcements head off trouble. Chamber of Commerce offers to mediate racial dispute—principally over segregated motels and restaurants—but Negro leader says demonstrations will continue.

JERSEY CITY, N.J. — Mayor Thomas Gangemi announces a civil rights program he says will "end racial tension and make Jersey City the showcase of the nation."

TEXARKANA, Tex. — Texarkana Junior College admits two Negro women under federal court orders with no incidents on campus during the day. But about 200 youths burned a cross on the campus Wednesday night, then staged an anti-integration march in the downtown area.

NAACP Will Picket Pittsburgh Project

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Ten community leaders will picket for six hours Friday at the construction site of a new federal building in downtown Pittsburgh, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says.

Herbert Wilkerson, executive secretary of the Pittsburgh chapter of the NAACP, said Wednesday the pickets will protest what the association says is discrimination against Negroes in hiring workers for the construction.

Wilkerson said he knows of only two Negroes working on the project.

MOST CRITICS PULL STOPS ON "CLEOPATRA"

NEW YORK (AP) — "Cleopatra," $40 million worth of monumental movie, barged onto Broadway Wednesday night and was greeted mostly with critical acclaim.

The premiere at the Rivoli Theater was a celebrity-packed charity affair, featuring the added glitter of two of the film's stars: Rex ("Caesar") Harrison and Roddy ("Octavius") McDowall.

Elizabeth Taylor ("Cleopatra") and Richard Burton ("Antony"), whose real-life romance has added to the oceans of ballyhoo accompanying a picture four years in the making, remained in London.

HUGE CROWDS

Outside the theater, about 5,000 persons, barely controlled by mounted and foot policemen, surged against wooden barriers and perched on lamp posts and trash baskets to see such personalities as Helen Hayes, Eddie Albert, Paul Anka, Beatrice Lillie, Red Buttons and Joan Fontaine.

Bosley Crowther of the New York Times called the four-hour and three-minute film "a surpassing entertainment, one of the great epic films of our day . . . fraught with imperishable romance, adventure and tragedy."

Wanda Hale of the New York Daily News termed it a film "well worth waiting for," applauding the acting of all the principals and supporting players and saluting producer Joseph Mankiewicz as investing "the Caesar-Cleopatra affair with delicious humor."

SOME DESSERTS

A "thumbs-down" for the extravaganza came from Judith Crist of the New York Herald Tribune, who wrote that the movie "is at best a major disappointment, at worst an extravagant exercise in tedium."

Justin Gilbert of the New York Mirror termed the film "A spectacular, sensuous spectacle," and was critical of Miss Taylor's direction.

Rose Pelwick of the New York Journal-American said "tremendous is the word for 'Cleopatra'." William Glover of the Associated Press viewed "Cleopatra" as "merely one more overlong, gaudy and ultimately tedious superscreen spectacle."

Archer Winsten of the New York Post said the film "will not make back its money on its merit," adding: "Cleopatra, in the person of Elizabeth Taylor, falls flat, the dialogue leaves much to be desired. Although a beautiful spectacle it just doesn't ring the bell."

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa. (AP) — New Kensington High School has a new basketball coach, Mike Rice, former basketball star at Duquesne University. Rice, 24, succeeds Ken Slosky, who was fired earlier this week.

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—The Greensburg Roman Catholic Diocese announced Wednesday the transfer of Rev. Michael A. Kowal to St. Francis, Gracetown, and St. Bonaventure, Black Lick. The move is effective June 20.

Old Tradition Will Be Followed In The Selection Of Successor To Pope John

By FRANCIS STILLEY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Any male member of the Roman Catholic Church is eligible to be elected Pope.

However, the possibility of a layman being chosen will be exceedingly remote when the College of Cardinals goes into secret conclave next week to select a successor to Pope John XXIII.

No layman has been elected pope in some 700 years. Furthermore, every pope since the year 386 has been a cardinal.

And a precedent of 1 on 9 standing would seem to make it virtually certain that the next pope will be an Italian.

FAVOR ITALIANS
Since 1523, when the Dutch-born Adrian VI died after a 20-month reign, only natives of Italy have occupied the papacy.

As always when time arrives for the choice of a new pope, there is great speculation. And as in the past, several names are often being mentioned though no one of the individuals would appear to have an overwhelming advantage.

One whose name has recurred most frequently in the speculation is Giovanni Battista Cardinal Montini, 65-year-old archbishop of Milan. Cardinal Montini was a close collaborator of Pope Pius XII, predecessor of Pope John.

Another archbishop regarded as a possible choice for pontiff is Alfonso Castaldo of Naples, now 72.

OTHERS MENTIONED
Mention also has been made of several Italian cardinals on the Vatican Curia. They include Carlo Confalonieri, 69; Fernando Cento, 79; Paolo Marella, 68; Ildebrando Antonutti, 64, and Luigi Traglia, 68.

A two-thirds vote of the College of Cardinals is required to choose the pontiff. The college now has 82 members but some may not be able to attend because of health, age or other reasons.

Should the conclave deadlock, as it has at times in the past, there is some thought that Eugene Cardinal Tisserant might have the popularity to overcome the centuries old Italian-Pope tradition.

FRENCH-BORN DEAN
Cardinal Tisserant, 79, is the French-born dean of the College of Cardinals.

Other non-Italians who might have a similar chance are regarded as Gregory Peter Agagianian, an Armenian and member of the Curia; Leo Josef Suenens, archbishop of Brussels, and Paul Emile Leger, Archbishop of Montreal.

Cardinal Agagianian was the most mentioned non-Italian during the 1962 gathering when Pope John was chosen.

It is always possible, of course, that the next choice could be a relatively unknown figure. This too has happened many times in church history.

In fact, in 1585, a name which figured very little in the advance speculation was that of Angelo Giuseppe Cardinal Roncalli, patriarch of Venice—who became Pope John.

BIGGEST CONCLAVE
In any case, the next pope will be elected largely by non-Italians. The College of Cardinals now has 28 Italian members and 54 of other nationalities. It will be the biggest conclave ever, for Pope John enlarged the college from 70 to 85 members, but three have since died.

When the college goes into session, it will vote twice each morning and twice each afternoon until someone receives the required majority.

There is no time limit on the deliberations. Pope Gregory X was chosen in 1271 after two years and nine months—the longest effort in history.

Pope John was chosen in four days.

LARGEST FAITH
The new pope will be the spiritual leader of the world's largest and most far-flung faith.

The church estimates the number of its members at more than 558 million—a sixth of all mankind. The Mohammedan faith is next in membership with some 430 million.

Roman Catholic concentration is greatest in Central and Southern Europe, and in Latin America. Catholics are in a minority in Northern Europe except for Ireland.

Even in Russia the church has a greater following than most people probably would suspect. It estimates the membership there at somewhat more than 8 million.

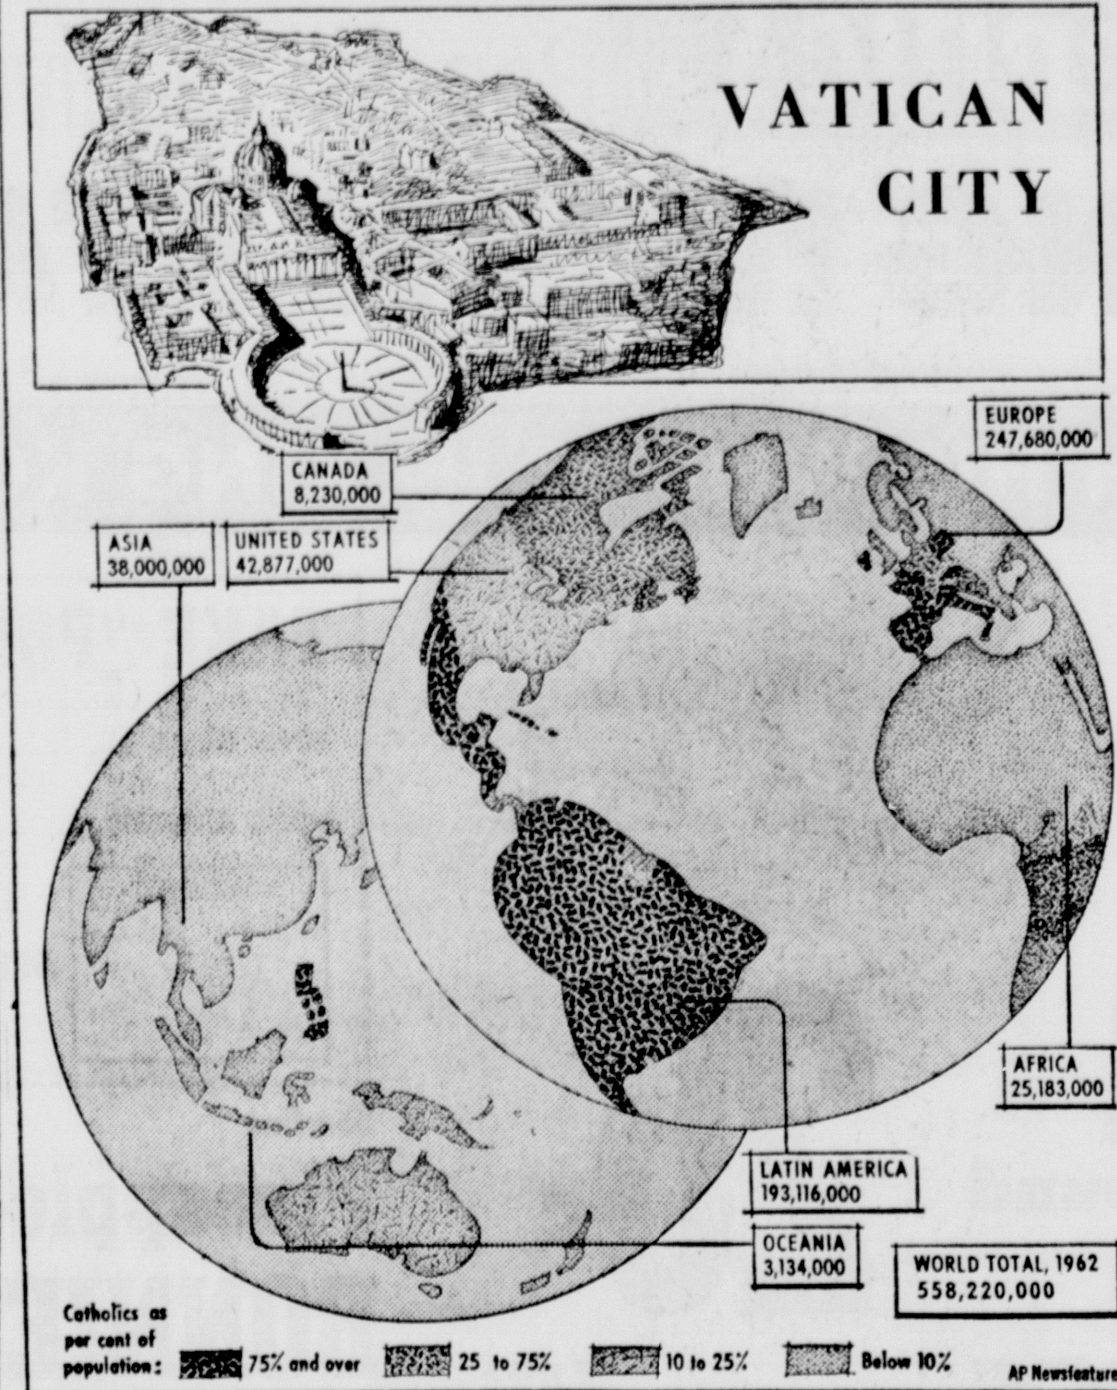

The populations of Hungary and Poland also are predominantly Roman Catholic, although the church is under severe restrictions.

In the United States the membership is about 43 million, making it the largest single Christian denomination. However, the total for the various Protestant faiths is considerably greater.

"WE HAVE A POPE"
A multitude of the faithful will wait at St. Peter's Square of the Vatican in Rome as their new pope is being chosen.

In a breathless moment at last a great hush will fall as the Cardinal deacon appears on the central balcony of St. Peter's Basilica. To the waiting throng he will say:

"Nuntio Vobis Guadium Magnum: Habemus Papam . . . I announce to you tidings of great joy. We have a pope."

There will be a thunderous roar of cheering, and then the cardinal deacon will announce his name to a new frenzy of rejoicing.

With that the new pope will step into view and raise his hands in benediction.

WANTS REVIEW OF PA. CIVIL RIGHTS LAWS

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton said Wednesday he has asked Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandrini to "thoroughly review" the state's civil rights laws and make suggestions for improvement.

The governor told his weekly news conference that there are no plans at the present for legislation to tighten state civil rights statutes. However, he added:

"I have asked the attorney general to review thoroughly our present laws and to let me know as soon as possible his suggestions for improvement thereof."

"Also," said Scranton, "I have made some contact with other persons interested in this field to get their opinions as to whether the (present) laws are adequate."

REVIEW PROBLEMS

The governor said "we're about to send to the legislature" his appointments to the state's Human Relations Commission.

"When they have been acted upon (confirmed by the Senate) then I would like to meet with the commission and go over the problems that may arise in Pennsylvania," the governor said. He added:

"In addition we have added another individual to the legal staff of the commission to help with have grown in number in the last year and a half."

Scranton's action followed President Kennedy's announcement in a national address Tuesday night that he would lead to Congress shortly proposed legislation to strengthen civil rights statutes and guarantees to Negro citizens.

Sight-seers driving over San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge are discouraged from traveling at a snail's pace by an optical illusion. At less than 35 miles an hour, the metal pales below the guardrail block the view. Proper speed gives motorists an uninterrupted panorama.

Today In Washington

TAXES: The House Ways and Means Committee, drafting a tax cut and revision bill, has rejected President Kennedy's proposal that a $300 credit against income tax be substituted for the present extra personal exemption and retirement income credit for persons over 65.

The Treasury estimated that the proposal, liberalizing tax treatment substantially for aged taxpayers in the low- and middle-income groups, would reduce government tax revenues $350 million annually.

Also rejected was a Kennedy proposal to allow business firms to deduct the cost of research equipment as a current expense.

VICE PRESIDENT: A constitutional amendment to transfer the powers and duties of a disabled president to the vice president under conditions to be prescribed by Congress has the endorsement of the American Bar Association.

Lewis F. Powell Jr., Richmond, Va., president-elect of the law group, endorsed the amendment Tuesday. He told a Senate subcommittee agreements like those between President Kennedy and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and between former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and his vice president, Richard M. Nixon, are "hardly an acceptable permanent solution."

POETRY: A U.S. Information Agency gift of 25 books of modern Brazilian poetry—presented to Brazilian poets—has Rep. John J. Rooney wondering.

"How does this make an impact on the minds of the men and the people of Brazil, to send them their own poetry and give them away to poets whom one would expect to be thoroughly acquainted with poetry in Brazil?" the New York Democrat asked.

Rooney, who is chairman of a House Appropriations subcommittee, brought up the poetry in questioning Gordon A. Ewing, director of the USIA information center service.

Ewing said the poetry was in English translation and the intention of the book was to show an interest in Brazilian culture.

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy, faced with a racial crisis that threatens violence and lives, finally appealed in a nationwide broadcast for an end to discrimination against Negroes.

He did five things in his talk Tuesday night:

1. He blamed all 50 states, not just the South where racial prejudice is most intense, for discrimination.

2. He made equal treatment for Negroes an urgent necessity by noting that violence and lives are threatened.

3. He asked all white Americans to examine their conscience and cooperate in ending discrimination.

BACKS NEGROES

4. By the broadcast he put the full weight of his office behind his plea to give Negroes the constitutional rights denied them.

5. He outlined steps he wants Congress to take in this direction by passing laws to overcome segregation.

That he make such a talk had been urged on Kennedy from various quarters for weeks as racial tensions increased and, in some places, burst into riots.

The indications were that he wouldn't.

He finally did it a few hours after compelling the admittance of two Negroes to the University of Alabama over the completely empty resistance of Gov. George C. Wallace.

LATE DECISIONS

If Kennedy had made the same kind of talk earlier in his administration, if not most, of the present tensions might have been avoided although perhaps not unless he had followed the talk with action.

By the same token race relations in the United States now might have been far more advanced if President Dwight D. Eisenhower had made a similar plea just once in his eight years in office.

Kennedy made two points on the legislation he will lay before Congress:

MORE SUPPORT

—He wants a law giving Negroes the right to be served in public facilities, like hotels and restaurants. This seems to mean a law forbidding proprietors of such facilities, if they are involved in interstate commerce at all, to decide on their own to refuse to serve Negroes. On May 21 the Supreme Court ruled no state or city law can force such a proprietor to discriminate. It didn't yet say whether they could do it on their own.

—He wants a law from Congress to authorize the federal government to step in more fully in lawsuits to end segregation in public education. As of now a Negro denied admittance to a segregated school in almost all areas must file his own suit. Few Negroes can afford such expense.

Some Negro leaders feel, however, that unless Congress passes a law permitting the government to file a suit in any case where a Negro's civil rights are denied—not just in selected fields—all other measures are insufficient.

It seems pretty certain at this writing that Kennedy will not ask for such authority.

A little vinegar added to pared beets that are going to be sliced or diced and cooked in a very small amount of water will help keep color where it belongs—in the beets.

MERV GRIFFIN TO DO MORNING TV GAME SHOW

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — After all the sound and fury, Merv Griffin is coming back to NBC in the fall — as host on a new morning game show.

There's a bit of irony in Tuesday's NBC announcement, for Griffin quit an NBC morning game show about a year ago in order to do "The Merv Griffin Show" in the afternoon on the network. Its cancellation three months ago for low ratings caused more anguish and noisy hand-wringing than any other single event of the television season.

"SHOPPING SPREE"
Griffin's new show—which his production company will package—is called "Shopping Spree" and will be one of two new shows which will be added to the network's solid three-hour block of games shows starting at 10 a.m. NBC lost "The Price Is Right" to ABC, starting in the fall. And it will drop, as expected, "Play your Hunch," which has been starring Robert Q. Lewis since Griffin quit the show.

"Shopping Spree" and another word game, "Missing Links" will replace them. It is probable that Robert Q. will move over to "Missing Links" as host.

Impending motherhood has raised hob with Carol Burnett's theater and television plans. Carol, now Mrs. Joe Hamilton, expects her first child after the first of the year, so her planned Broadway musical, hand-tailored by Betty Comden and Adolph Green, has been postponed until spring.

This, in turn, has fouled up CBS plans for a Carol Burnett Television series for the 1964-65 season.

MOSCOW AP — Soviet scientists reported Tuesday that a 22-million mile radar probe of Mars showed stable flat areas on the planet's surface.

The news agency Tass said the probe was made last February. It said the radio waves took over 11 minutes to travel to Mars and back.

Tass said the results of the experiment were compared with earlier radar scanings of the planets Venus and Mercury.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—My country's restaurants, 'tis of thee I sing.

Today you're making life a pleasure for the weary, wayworn traveler.

Remember when it was said there were only three cities in the United States where a man could get a decent meal—New York, New Orleans and San Francisco?

Remember when ketchup was the all-American food, because it was used from coast to coast to cover up culinary horrors? It was the only thing that tasted the same everywhere—but it took a strong man to shake it out of the bottle.

OLD TROUBLES

Only a generation ago the well-equipped motoring tourist needed a stomach pump as much as a tire pump. He didn't need to climb a mountain to find adventure. All he had to do was stop at a roadside Bide-a-Wee or Dew Drop Inn—and order the blue plate special.

A gastronomic map of America would have shown it to consist largely of a vast desert where the natives took revenge on passing strangers by insisting that they partake of local grub.

Each region had developed its own way of ruining good food.

In New England they boiled a piece of meat until it disintegrated. In the South they tossed it into a kettle of boiling lard until it gave up and sank. In the West and Southwest they fried it until you couldn't tell it from boot leather. In the Midwest they used all three methods.

ALL IS CHANGED

The great camouflage material, besides the every ready ketchup bottle, was gravy. It flowed over the cook's errors in a thick, clabbered, impenetrable—and indigestible—flood.

All that is changed today. There has been a quiet revolution in American eating habits.

"I never trust a man who isn't interested in good food," William Allen White once said.

If the culture of a country is measured by the quality of its food, America is on the upbeat in this respect. More and more of our people know what good food is, enjoy it, and demand it. The "Greasy Joe" type of place,

REPORT UNION READY TO ACT ON STEEL PACT

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The United Steelworkers Union has called a meeting of its top decision-making group, presumably to take action on the union's contracts with the basic steel industry.

The long-awaited announcement Tuesday said the wage policy committee will convene in Pittsburgh next Tuesday. The committee has the final say-so on contract matters.

Speculation developed that the union and steelmakers have all but reached agreement on contract revisions. The union flatly denied this.

DENIES AGREEMENT

"If there's anything in the bag, Dave McDonald, USW president would certainly like to know about it," a union spokesman said.

Generally, the committee meeting could produce one of two results.

2.—An announcement that the union-management human relations committee has ironed out differences to the point that a reopening of formal contract talks would not be necessary.

2.—An announcement that the union wants to reopen talks, a right it has under present contracts.

Iron Age magazine said Wednesday bargainers in the joint Union-management Human Relations Committee have been close to agreement for possibly six weeks.

run by a guy in a dirty apron, is or the way out. In practically every community of any size across our broad land there are restaurants now where a man can belly-up the fine, well-cooked, tasty meals of endless variety that are an ecstasy of the palate and a joy to the soul.

How can you tell a good restaurant? My test is tea. There is only one way to make good tea. With boiling water. If the waitress brings you tea lukewarm as a loan shark's handshake, get up and flee that place as if it had a hex on it.

Remember, the stomach you save will be your own.

"The human relations approach is being blamed in varying degrees—and by both sides—for inability to come to an agreement earlier," Iron Age said.

The USW was free to demand a reopening May 1 but declined to do so. It could strike 90 days after notifying the companies it wants to reopen talks.

In all likelihood, a reopening of negotiations would boost steel production which already is abnormally high due to the uncertainty in the labor picture.

Some 2,513,000 tons of steel were poured in the week ending June 8 at a rate estimated at 84 per cent of capacity. The so-called "normal" operating rate is 70 per cent of capacity.

The union's executive board will meet Monday prior to the Tuesday meeting of the wage policy committee. The board is a part of the committee.

In the past several weeks, the Human Relations Committee held

"A second thought on first aid"

We're constantly amazed at the number of children who cut, scrape and bruise themselves within sight (and sound) of our pharmacy. We do a big business in antiseptics, bandages, and other first-aid items. Same everywhere, probably. But sometimes we wonder if people don't depend too much on first aid—neglect proper medical attention. If there's the slightest question in your mind following what appears to be minor injuries, see your physician. First aid has definite limitations. You can only be sure of proper medical care by seeing your doctor. A prompt visit can save a half dozen later.

Unions Want Sabbaticals For Industrial Workers

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Sabbaticals for industrial workers as well as professors is becoming a top union goal.

The United Steelworkers of America union is expected to reveal next week whether it has won such extended vacations from the major steel companies.

This union got sabbaticals accepted by American Can and Continental Can companies last fall for their 32,000 union members.

The steelworkers have been pushing hard to extend this to the basic steel companies in the negotiations that have been going on for weeks and which are set to reach a climax in the next few days.

EVERY FIVE YEARS

The sabbatical leave, as set forth in the can company contracts, calls for 13 weeks of paid vacations every five years for employees with 15 years or more seniority. This is an additional to the usual vacations in other years.

If the steel industry agrees, other unions may be expected to try to reach like contracts in many fields.

The sabbatical idea is put forth as one of several labor programs for combatting unemployment. It's a spread-the-work plan, like shorter work weeks, earlier retirements, longer annual vacations, and various schemes for ironing out the ups and downs of employment in industries with strong cyclical patterns.

Management's chief objection has been the cost. Someone else has to be paid while the older employee—also being paid—is enjoying his 13 weeks off. The extra expense is added to a long list of rising costs that push production charges higher and squeeze profits or boost prices, or both.

MORE FOR BENEFITS
Another factor is that the increased number of employees on the payroll because of sabbaticals, or longer annual vacations, or shorter work weeks, means that many more in line for fringe benefits. These range from pensions to health insurance, to unemployment payment charges, to paid vacations.

And fringe benefits have been getting more emphasis than straight wage scale increases in labor negotiations in recent years.

But the unions see the sabbatical as one of their best schemes for combatting the unemployment they lay to increased automation. Job security is a big thing this year.

Some experts figure that the sabbatical leave plan of the can companies will cost about 7½ cents an hour when it goes into effect next January—it was delayed while plant schedules were rearranged.

Steel company executives have insisted that in their companies the costs would run 12 to 15 cents an hour. And they complain that costs already are too high.

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The first man to pole vault 16 feet pattered across the bare skating rink and soared through the damp midtown air.

"A new Lower Plaza record of 13 feet 6 inches," said the man at the microphone.

It was lunch hour at Radio City Tuesday and the people who work in the concrete towers had come out for air. They squinted almost suspiciously and then applauded. Ice skaters, bands, choirs, they were used to. But pole vaulters? Hardly ever.

LEARNS KNACK

John Uelses, the first of the 16-footers, had missed at 10 feet before he learned the knack of the short approach and the unusual jumping surface.

Gymnasts, tennis players, golfers, basketball players, track stars and professional football players took part in the hour-long sports gala, prestened by Sports Illustrated in conjunction with the Greater New York Fund.

The football stars ran through a few plays while Tommy McDonald of the Philadelphia Eagles needed them.

CAGERS TAKE OVER

Then it was time for the basketball men and Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse—now Philadelphia—club, Jack Twyman of Cincinnati, Tommy Heinsohn of Boston and Jerry Lucas, the ex-Ohio State star.

Four golfers lofted plastic golf balls into the crowd. Frank Gifford of the Giants kicked a football into the street.

Considering that the Olympic pole vault was won at 12-11½ in 1924 and only 14-11½ in 1956, that vault of 13-6 in one corner of a concrete skating plaza wasn't a bad show. Especially for free.

ACTOR'S SIGHT RESTORED BY EYE SURGERY

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Having known what it is to live in a world of darkness, Broderick Crawford knows how great is the blessing of sight.

Last December the Academy Award-winning actor was blinded in the right eye.

"I was making a picture in Spain called 'The Castilians,'" he said. "We were doing a sword fight and the director called the end of the scene. What with the language barrier the Spanish kept on fighting and one of them hit me on the right side of my face, right next to the eye."

CUT VISION

The blow caused a hemorrhage that blanked out vision in the eye. Crawford finished the film and came home.

Doctors here told him he had suffered a traumatic cataract; the eye was beginning to glass over with the milky look of cataract victims. He submitted to surgery and for three days lay still, his eyes covered with tight bandages.

"That was the toughest part of all," he recalled. "You don't realize how helpless you are without your sight. I had to be fed like a baby."

When the bandages were finally removed, Crawford experienced the shock of re-entering the world of light. He found he was dazzled by the brilliance.

UNDERWENT OPERATION

"The operation removed the film that ordinarily coats your eyes," he explained. "It's a remarkable thing. When I look at things with my left eye alone, they seem of normal color and shading. But when I look at them with my right, the colors stand out brilliantly."

Crawford made a fast recovery.

BERMUDIAN SCHOOL NEWS

By JOY NEIDIG
and SHIRLEY CORNMAN

Bermudian Springs High School library will be open Monday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock during the summer vacation. High school students and residents of the community are invited to make use of the library at that time. The Monday evening hours will begin June 17.

The first day of school for the 1963-64 school term will be Wednesday, September 4.

The annual awards assembly was held Wednesday, June 5, the last day of the 1962-63 school term. The assembly was held in conjunction with the move-up program led by the Seniors.

During the move-up program Seniors sang their final songs to faculty and students and read their "wills." Classes moved to their new seats in the assembly.

Among the awards presented were: Football letters: Seniors, Gary Shank, Dave Bricker, Sam Bricker, Emory Golden; Juniors, Donovan Meyers, Warren Weaver, James Harbold, Larry Bobb, Donald Fair, Ed Rodrock, Wayne Wise, Elmer Wantz, William Shook and Donald McCauslin; Sophomores, Leighton Megonnell, Reid McCauslin, Bill Hinkle, Albert Hoke, Dan Cornman, and Freshman, Joe Lemmon.

Within six weeks, he was back at work, acting with Ed Begley and Jack Kelly in a drama for the debut of Kraft Mystery Theater on NBC June 19.

The actor has since been fitted with glasses which bring the right eye up to 20-20 while blurring the left one (so the right eye will exercise properly). He is also trying out some new contact lenses.

"It was quite a scare," said Crawford, who doesn't scare easily. "After I lost the sight of the right eye I worried constantly about losing the other one. I guess it was only natural."

SAYS SENATE WILL AGREE TO TEST BAN BILL

Editor's Note—As U.S. disarmament director, William C. Foster would have a major role in selling any nuclear test ban treaty to the Senate. Does he think Senate approval of such a treaty is likely? Does he believe the Russians really want to end nuclear testing? These and other questions are answered in this exclusive interview.

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. Disarmament Director William C. Foster predicts a safe passage in the Senate for any nuclear test ban treaty signed by the Soviet Union and the West.

He does not agree with those who predict that a treaty would provoke the most bruising battle in the Senate since the proposal to join the League of Nations after World War I. Nor does he believe it would suffer the same dismal fate.

"It would be tough," Foster said in an interview, "but we could get a treaty through the Senate."

Foster, 66, director of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, will not take part in the U.S.-British-Soviet nuclear test ban treaty negotiations in Moscow next month. From his office here, he will back up the efforts of the American negotiators.

HAS MAJOR ROLE

He would have a major role in selling any treaty to the Senate. Without the approval of a two-thirds majority, the treaty, like the League of Nations proposal almost 50 years ago, would die, unratified.

Despite his optimism, Foster said he had no illusions about the significance of a nuclear test ban treaty.

Foster also saw an overemphasis in the current concern over the number of inspections in a treaty. The Russians have said they would allow no more than three inspections of possible underground tests. The Americans have said they would settle for no less than seven.

INSPECTION DATES

"The number of inspections is not as important as the fact that these inspections are part of a system," Foster said. "We want to know how long we can inspect, who does the inspecting, where do we inspect, and so on."

"Three inspections a year would be too little," he said. "But there's no magic in the number seven."

Foster took issue with Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., and others who feel that the U.S. Senate is the "big, black obstacle" to a test ban.

"Congress isn't the big, black obstacle to a treaty," Foster said.

Sophomores receiving recognition for their scores on the test were: Darlene Black, Nancy Decker, Judy Ensor, Larry Herren, Rita Hopper, Paula Lerew, Marlin Stoner, Kurt Semke, Conrad Weiser, Mile Williams, Dudley Wolf and June Leinhart.

Cynthia Zepp was recognized for her work as editor-in-chief of the yearbook.

Barbara Miller and Samuel Bricker were presented awards from the Danforth Foundation.

"They are logical people," he said. "They know the risks of continued testing. They know testing is expensive."

ROY HARRIS STILL ACTIVE DESPITE AGE

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — At 65, composer Roy Harris shows no sign of slowing down his double career.

He continues his teaching of a new generation of composers and the creating of a body of works that has enriched the musical literature of America.

Harris was born in Lincoln County, Okla., 65 years ago last Feb. 12. The date and the location are significant, since his music has been Lincolnshire in its individualism and its use of the American idiom.

His family moved to Covina, Calif., when he was 6. He first displayed his brilliance as a composer at UCLA, where he returned three years ago to conduct graduate seminars and other classes for young musicians.

He conducted the West Coast premiere of his Fifth Symphony at the current Los Angeles International Music Festival at UCLA. Between rehearsals he talked about the plight of the serious artist and about his birthday.

"Many wonderful things happened," said the affable, broad-faced composer. "The Philadelphia Orchestra commissioned my Ninth Symphony, which I have already finished. And the friends of Albert Schweitzer commissioned a large work for chorus and orchestra to celebrate Dr. Schweitzer's 90th birthday."

Although considered one of the country's successful composers, Harris admitted he cannot earn a living from composition alone. "Not with five children," said

Harris, whose offspring range from 7 to 19 years. "Perhaps I could have earned enough if I had written popular music or movie scores. But I never wanted to do the ones I was offered and I was never offered the ones I wanted. "So I have to teach. I enjoy it; teaching is both a privilege and a responsibility."

UNION MEETS WITH PENNSY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Representatives of the Transport Workers Union meet again today with the Pennsylvania Railroad in another attempt to resolve a dispute over the attempted firing of eight oilers at the 30th Street Station.

The talks resume under an implied threat of a possible work stoppage, following the appointment Tuesday of all 900 members of TWU Local 2013 as shop stewards. Their new status as shop stewards enables the union to call them off the job for "emergency meetings" at any time without actually calling a strike, union officials said.

Andrew J. Kaelin, international union vice president and coordinator of its railroad division, said Tuesday that the union had no immediate plans for using such tactics, and that it hoped the dispute could be settled through negotiation.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sirs:
In behalf of the Upper Adams

He said a company-union meeting Tuesday ended without agreement, but that the company had requested another meeting today.

School District, may I thank The Gettysburg Times for the news coverage it gave our schools during the year. We all appreciate the cooperation given us. I am sure the parents of our children and friends of our schools join me in saying "thanks."

Sincerely,

State Plans New Hunting And Fishing Playground

By DAVE LEHERR

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Scranton administration has unveiled plans to convert ill-fated Quehanna into a 40,000 acre hunting and fishing playground and a new industrial research and development park.

Gov. Scranton reported Tuesday at a special news conference that the problem of what to do with the 50,000 acre "white elephant" in north central Pennsylvania had been solved.

The solution came in a three-way agreement between the commonwealth, the Curtis-Wright Corp. and Pennsylvania State University.

Curtis-Wright took over the tract in 1955, purchasing some 8,700 acres from the state at $22.50 an acre and leasing the remainder for $30,000 a year.

JET PLANS FOLD

However, corporation hopes of converting the facility into a jet-engine testing facility collapsed when the federal government switched its main air efforts to rocketry.

Under the new arrangement which still must be completed, Scranton said 40,000 acres surrounding the core of the facility would revert to full control of the commonwealth and be made available to the public for hunting, fishing and recreation.

This recreation playground, said Scranton, would be operated by the state Forests and Waters Department.

RETAIN 700 ACRES

The 700 acres owned outright by Curtis-Wright is to be retained by the corporation, but will be leased to Penn State for industrial development and research.

"The commonwealth and Pennsylvania State University will jointly organize a nonprofit corporation to be known as the Commonwealth Industrial Research Corporation," said Scranton.

The corporation, said Scranton, will be created to attract new and expanding research and development industry to Pennsylvania and will be eligible for loans from the state's industrial development authority (PIDA).

"The importance of these arrangements for the future of Quehanna cannot be overemphasized," Scranton said.

He noted that Penn State already is negotiating with one firm to set up shop in the proposed industrial park. He did not name the firm.

Scranton estimated that the entire cost of the project to the state would be less than half a million dollars, well below the original construction cost of Quehanna.

The facility lies in Clearfield, Centre and Elk Counties.

ASK EXTENSION OF SAFETY ACT IN COAL MINES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spokesmen for coal mine operators, union miners, and the Bureau of Mines have joined in calling for extension of the federal coal mine safety act to cover small mines, employing fewer than 14 men, which are currently exempt.

Edward G. Fox, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators' Association, said Tuesday that day-to-day mining accidents have caused more than 13 times as many deaths during the past 10 years as major disasters.

"It is also interesting to note," he added, "that a study of these day-to-day fatalities shows that

SENATE OKAYS HOUSE ACT ON STATE BOARD

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton's proposed policy making state Board of Education cleared the legislature Tuesday with Senate agreement on House amendments.

Concurrence came on a vote of 37-5, with the negative votes cast by Democrats who continued their verbal fight against the heavily amended bill.

The measure now goes to the governor for final action.

It sets up a 17-member state board of education to assume over all responsibility for education from kindergarten to college, replacing the 9-member state council of education and stripping policy decisions from the department of public instruction.

Separate seven-member councils of higher education and basic education will be established within the board. Together with three other members, the two councils will comprise the full board.

The House amendments accepted by the Senate would restore a measure of authority to the superintendent of public instruction by making him the chief administrative officer of the board.

Under the original Senate version the superintendent would have had no function.

Before the roll call, Minority leader Charles R. Weiner unsuccessfully appealed for appointment of a House-Senate conference committee to iron out differences in the bill.

"One of the serious defects in that this will create a three-headed monster," said Weiner. "There will be no one you can go to for final responsibility and the measure does not provide for bipartisan membership."

Weiner voted for the bill anyhow.

heir frequency rate is twice as great in small mines as in larger mines."

Fox spoke at a labor-management meeting on coal mine safety. It was convened by Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall, who was directed by President Kennedy to review coal mine safety practices and legislation following two recent disasters.

Fox urged the enactment of legislation to provide equal protection for workers in small mines. Charles Ferguson, safety director of the United Mine Workers of America said that by exempting small mines from the safety act, Congress had denied protection to the men who work in them, thus contributing to the death of many men.

The director of the Bureau of Mines, Marling J. Ankeny, said his agency has opposed the exemption provision since 1952, when it was first proposed and approved and has recommended each year that "this nightly discriminatory provision be stricken from the law."

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hollywood friends said goodbye to veteran comedienne Zasu Pitts at funeral services Tuesday in the mausoleum chapel at Holy Cross Cemetery.

More than 100 attended. Miss Pitts, 63, died Friday of cancer.

The mourners included actresses Martha Raye, Virginia Grey and Patsy Kelly, actor Ronald Reagan and producer Hal Roach Sr.
